When Morning Guilds the Skies

When morn - ing guilds the skies, — my heart a - wak - ing cries, may
 New strength comes night or day — when from the heart we say, may Dis - cor - dant hu - man kind, — in this your con - cord find, may Be this, while life is mine, — my can - ti - cle di - vine, may

Je - sus Christ be praised! A - like at work and prayer, one Je - sus Christ be praised! Let sin and e - vil fear, when Je - sus Christ be praised! Let all the earth a - round ring Je - sus Christ be praised! Be this the e - ter - nal song, through pur - pose I de - clare: may Je - sus Christ be praised!

 this sweet chant they hear: may Je - sus Christ be praised!
 joy - ous with the sound: may Je - sus Christ be praised!
 all the a - ges long: may Je - sus Christ be praised!

We Prepare

The prelude is designed to set the tone for the worship service. It is also an offering from one of our gifted musicians. Many wish to listen and meditate during this time.

We Worship

This strong, yet lilting morning song has unknown origins but may have been written in Fanconia, a particularly beautiful section of Germany. Each stanza leads to the same conclusions: praise of Jesus Christ. Some of the language is quite archaic and may need some explanation. The word guild is to make something appear golden, bright, or pleasing; concord literally means "with heart," or harmoniously; discordant denotes the breaking of harmony; canticle denotes a chant – especially a hymn of praise; repair means to return.

+ Please rise in body or spirit.

We Hear the Word

An inimitable exhortation to transformation of character marks a major transition from theology to ethics. Christian ethics are grounded not in law but in the mercies of God, and are a response of gratitude to the grace of God.

We Worship

This prayer hymn comes from the GIA Catholic publication, Gather. It was written by Diana Kodner in the 1950's but was not published until 1994.

We Hear the Word

This scene closes the third major section by summarizing its central issue; the discernment of Jesus' identity. At Caesarea Philippi was a shrine to Pan, god of shepherds and flocks, and the city was associated with various displays of imperial power. God's purposes, not Jupiter's and Rome's, are asserted in the recognition of God's shepherd or commissioned ruler.

Epistle Reading

Leslie Jackson (9 am)
DeJuana Jernigan (11 am)

Romans 12:1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to his world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God - what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you do not think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Rev. Kristen Klein-Cechettini

Matthew 16:13-20

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Holy One is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but God in heaven has. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the realm of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Our Guest

Paul Guillory has worked in the oil and gas industry for 25 years. He currently works for P2 Energy Solutions where he is a Sr. Consultant.

Paul has been partnered for over 5 years with Leon Johnson, Jr., whom he married during a Freedom to Marry Week ceremony at Resurrection this year.

Paul is the proud father of three children and the founder and facilitator of The Men's Gathering, a group of African-American same gender loving men who dialogue about issues which are important to them, and help them form healthy relationships with themselves and others. Paul is the programming co-chair for the Houston Chapter of the National Black MBA Association. He is also on the HRC Equality Forward Diversity Team that is responsible for training the HRC Steering Committees in valuing and including diversity in all of their activities.

We Receive

All Congregations in MCC practice an open communion.

We believe that communion is a visible sign of Christ's presence and God's grace that each one of us, visitor, friend, or member, may receive.

Simply come forward as the ushers direct. We use grape juice for the cup. After you are served you will receive a blessing from the server. If you are in need of further prayer, our Fisher's Net Prayer Ministry team is available following both services to pray with you.

We Sing

We sing as a body during the distribution of the elements. If you do not wish to sing, please be in an attitude of prayer for those who wish to meditate during this time.

God, open us to your living presence through your life at this table.

Receive the living sacrifice of our awakened life.

My Jesus, I Love Thee

My Jesus, I love thee; I know thou art mine.
For thee all the follies of sin I resign.
My gracious Redeemer, my Savior art thou:
If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

In mansions of glory and endless delight,
I'll ever adore thee in heaven so bright,
I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow,
"If ever I loved thee, my Jesus, 'tis now."

I Stand in Awe

You are beautiful beyond description, too marvelous for words,
Too wonderful for comprehension, like nothing ever seen or heard.

Who can grasp your infinite wisdom,
Who can fathom the depth of your love?

You are beautiful beyond description, majesty enthroned above.

+ And I stand, I stand in awe of you,
I stand, I stand in awe of you,
Holy God, to whom all praise is due,

I stand in awe of you.

Postlude

Joel Hammett

Sacred Reading

Remember no prayer goes unanswered. Remember that the moment a thing seems wrong to you, or a person's actions to be not what you think they should be, at that moment begins your obligation and responsibility to pray for those wrongs to be righted, or that person to be different.

Face your responsibilities. What is wrong in your country, its statesmen, its laws, its people? Think out quietly, and make these matters your prayer matters. You will see lives you never touch altered, laws made at your request, evils banished.

Yes! live in a large sense. Live to serve and save. You may never go beyond one room, and yet you may become one of the most powerful forces for good in your country, in the world.

You may never see the mighty work you do, but I see it, evil sees it. Oh! it is a glorious life, the life of one who saves. Fellow-workers together with me. See this more and more.

Love with me, sharers of My life.

~ August 12 entry from God Calling, entitled, Rule the World.

You do not have to be good.

You do not have to walk on your knees for a hundred miles through the desert repenting.

You only have to let the soft animal of your body love what it loves.

Tell me about despair, yours, and I will tell you mine.

Meanwhile the world goes on.

Meanwhile the sun and the clear pebbles of the rain are moving across the landscapes, over the prairies and the deep trees,
the mountains and the rivers.

Meanwhile the wild geese, high in the clean blue air,
are heading home again.

Whoever you are, no matter how lonely,
the world offers itself to your imagination,
calls to you like the wild geese, harsh and exciting - over and over announcing your place in the family of things.

~ From Mary Oliver, Dream Work.

Only when we have come in touch with our own life experiences and have learned to listen to our inner cravings for liberation and new life can we realize that Jesus did not just speak, but that he reached out to us in our most personal needs. The Gospel doesn't just contain ideas worth remembering. It is a message responding to our individual human condition. The Church is not an institution forcing us to follow its rules. It is a community of people inviting us to still our hunger and thirst at its tables. Doctrines are not alien formulations which we must adhere to but the documentation of the most profound human experiences which, transcending time and place, are handed over from generation to generation as a light in our darkness.

~ From Henri J. M. Nouwen, Reaching Out.

Exercises for Maturity & Transformation

Start a dream journal. Put a notepad by your bed and jot down the last thoughts on your mind before you fall asleep. Then write your first thoughts when you wake. Note any dreams you had while it is fresh on your mind. At the end of the week, take time to read over your thoughts and listen to your dreams.

~ Rev. Janice Ladd

Open a dialogue with someone you trust about what it means to live an awakened life. Ask this insider to remember a time in your life when you seemed most alive. Be sure to offer this same feedback to your friend as well.

If you are visiting Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located next to Inspirations, our coffee café and gift shop, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church with a primary outreach to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community. We are a part of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, founded by Rev. Troy D. Perry in Los Angeles, California on October 6, 1968. Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people, and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality.

The Mission of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The Vision of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. To that end, we embrace five core beliefs:

We believe in God's unconditional love for everyone.

We believe in the saving grace of Jesus Christ and the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit.

We believe in including everyone and excluding no one.

We believe in joyfully providing access to Christ-centered spiritual nourishment and Biblical truths.

We believe that each of us will discover our spirituality through active participation in the work of God and in the pursuit of health, wholeness, and justice for everyone.

Again, welcome!

CREATING A LIFE THAT MATTERS

MCC's Transformational Spiritual Development Curriculum

Creating a Life that Matters is a three-course curriculum which explores ways to rediscover relationship with the Sacred, with my Self, and with my Passion. These three courses correspond to the spiritual experiences of being changed, gifted and called. Graduates of Creating a Life that Matters will have been challenged to broaden their understanding of all that is Sacred; integrate their self-awareness into being authentic, aware leaders; and live their passion intentionally through the life and work of the church.

Creating a Life that Matters integrates art, scripture, music, film, journaling, and diverse spiritual resources to augment our exploration of the Christian path.

Unbinding the Gospel

You are invited to join Rev. Janice, Rev. Dwayne and Mark Eggleston in an exciting in-depth study of Unbinding the Gospel: Real Life Evangelism!

This incredible 7-week study provides church leaders, formal and informal, with an opportunity to share our love of God with one another, to build relationships upon passion for our faith, and to ignite our church and community anew with the fire of God's love!

This faith adventure runs Wednesday evenings, September 17 - October 29, from 7:00 - 8:30 pm.

Books ($15) available now in Inspirations Coffee Cafe & Gift Shop. RSVP to RevJanice@ResurrectionMCC.org.

The heart of evangelism emerges from the interaction of these three sets of relationships: our personal relationships with God, healthy congregational relationships, and caring about people who don't have a conscious connection with Christ. The heart of evangelism is being in love with God, being part of a church you love and caring about other people who do not know that faith.

There are 44,640 minutes in a month.
Can you part with 20 of them?

Indulge me. Upon walking up to the doors of the church, what is the first thing that you see or hear? Your answer is probably that you see someone holding open a door and saying "Good morning" to you. These smiling, helpful people are the Welcome Ministry Greeters.

The Welcome Ministry is at the front lines of all that is Resurrection MCC. The greeters are the first smiles, handshakes, and kind words that people see and hear when they step foot onto our campus. Before being wowed with uplifting music and inspiring messages, and even before receiving a worship folder, members, guests, and visitors are welcomed as friends of Resurrection.

Well, with that said, WE NEED YOU! Yes, you! Resurrection needs you to become a vital part to our volunteer ministries by joining the Welcome Ministry. If you are reading this and thinking, "I just don't have the time." Think about this: You have 44,640 minutes every month. How exactly are you using them? How many of them are you turning over to the service of God and the church? If you are like me, you might have wasted a good chunk of them on Golden Girls reruns. But here's the easy part -- it's only 20 minutes!

It's very simple. The only things you need are a warm smile, a kind word, and 20 minutes. On a given Sunday each month, greeters from the Welcome Ministry stand at the main entrances of the church, open doors, smile with a hello, and reach out to help visitors.

I hope you look in your heart and say, "I can do this. I can help." Simply email me at Welcome@ResurrectionMCC.org. From there I will contact you and get you scheduled for a great ministry and a wonderful experience at Resurrection.

Always,
Jason A. Sowders, Welcome Team Lead

What are Your Gifts?

Board of Directors Positions Available

In membership class, each of us take a Spiritual Gifts Assessment (available from our Web site). Those with the gifts of Administration, Creative Communication, Knowledge, Wisdom, Leadership, Discernment and/or Prophecy may be perfect candidates to serve on Resurrection's Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors is responsible for the fiduciary health of the church and administrating our resources to support the vision of Resurrection. We need people with a passion for financial issues, fundraising, community building outside our walls, and strategic planning for our future. We know those skills are in our congregation.

If you have taken the Spiritual Gifts Assessment and know you have these gifts, please consider this opportunity to serve. If you haven't taken the Assessment, please visit our website and take the survey. You may be the person(s) we need to fill these two open positions.

For more information, contact the Nominating Committee at Nominating@ResurrectionMCC.org or speak to one of the committee members: Win Boyd, Georgia Chambers, Ron Drumm, Yolanda Richardson and Rose Wall.

2008 Budget Adjustment

At Resurrection MCC we faithfully manage our income and expenses to maximize and focus our resources for greatest ministry impact. As part of this attention to excellence in stewardship, at the July 28 Board of Director's meeting, the Board voted to adjust the budget. One result is that our budget deficit has disappeared. Ministry impact, on the other hand, has not been reduced. The adjustments were to "miscellaneous" items related to both income and expenses.

The income budgeted from tithes and offerings remains the same. However, income budgeted from building rental has been reduced since an anticipated lease arrangement with a community group did not materialize. Another example was Casino Night. The FunRaising team felt that with the effort involved in the ongoing Imagine Campaign and the Last One Standing Raffle to be held on August 31, that Casino Night was too much for this year. Thus, both the projected income and expense from Casino Night was removed from the budget.

One example of expense reduction included our ability to renegotiate electricity costs, saving a fairly significant amount by locking in a lower rate. Because of generous givers, wonderful volunteers, careful review of expenses, and committed staff and leadership we can celebrate being free of a budget deficit. This is a great accomplishment, especially during Summer.

There are simply not enough words of thanks, encouragement and faithfulness to express how your gifts are being multiplied by God and how Resurrection is touching lives in this community. Thanks be to God, our staff, our volunteers and all of those who experience transformation at Resurrection!
