Pride Invocations

To invoke is to appeal to a source or authority, to earnestly request, to call forth into being . . . As we celebrate Pride month, we lift up voices of out brothers and sisters who proudly speak with the authority of their own experience, that we might be inspired to do likewise and together make way for the spirit of truth to call forth a world of justice, peace, and love. Further info p. 7

Pride Is...

knowing, believing, living God's promise ... That the Spirit is poured out upon all flesh ... That God's LGTBQIA sons and daughters shall prophesy ... That our young ones shall see visions ... That our elders shall dream dreams ... That 'everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs--in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Peoples of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young ones shall see visions, and your elders shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

John 37: 37-39

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, 'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water." ' Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Still

Hide me now under your wings; cover me within your mighty hand.
When the oceans rise and thunders roar; I will soar with you above the storm
Jesus, you are king over the flood; I will be still and know you are God.
Find rest my soul in Christ alone; Know his power in quietness and trust
When the oceans rise and thunders roar; I will soar with you above the storm
Jesus, you are king over the flood; I will be still and know you are God.

We Receive

All congregations in MCC practice an open communion. We believe that communion is a visible sign of Christ's presence and God's grace that each one of us, friend or member, may receive. Simply come forward as the ushers direct.

During Communion you will be offered bread and cup with a brief blessing.

We use grape juice for the cup so that all may participate.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the communion server on the far right. Simply say, "Gluten free."

If you desire a deeper partnering in prayer (intercessory prayer), prayer ministers are available at the Side Altar during communion. The Fishers Net Prayer Ministry is also available following both services to pray with you.

Todas las congregaciones de ICM (Iglesias de las Comunidades Metropolitana) practican una comunión abierta. Creemos en el amor de Dios incondicional para todas las personas.

Si deseas tomar la comunión en español, por favor dirígete hacia al ministro de comunión localizado hacia la izquierda y pídele, "En español, por favor."

Prayer

If you are in need of prayer support, you can find prayer partners available during our time of communion or after worship in the right wing of the Sanctuary.

I Need You More

I need you more, more than yesterday.
I need you more, more than words can say.
I need you more than ever before.
I need you, Lord, I need you, Lord.
More than the air I breathe, more than the song I sing;
More than the next heart beat, more than anything;
And Lord, as time goes by, I'll be by your side;
'Cause I never want to go back to my old life.

Made Me Glad/I Exalt Thee

I will bless the Lord forever; I will trust you at all times;
You have delivered me from all fear; you have set my feet upon a rock
And I will not be moved, and I'll say of the Lord;
You are my shield, my strength, my portion, Deliverer,
My shelter, strong tower, my very present help in time of need.
Whom have I in heaven but you?
There's none I desire beside you.
You have made me glad, and I'll say of the Lord;
You are my shield, my strength, my portion, Deliverer,
My shelter, strong tower, my very present help in time of need.
I exalt thee, I exalt thee, I exalt thee, O Lord.
I exalt thee, I exalt thee, I exalt thee, O Lord.
For thou, O Lord, art high above all the earth.
Thou art exalted far above all gods.

+ Going Forth in Song / Canto de Despedida

The musical score consists of four staves of music in a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are: "I am a friend of God. You call me friend. I am a friend of God. You call me friend!" The melody is simple and repetitive, with a consistent accompaniment of chords. The lyrics are placed below the notes on each staff.

Welcome!

If you are attending Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located in our Welcome Area, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you and your infants & children aged one month through three years! The nursery is located to the right of the Sanctuary entrance and is open during both the 9 & 11 am services.

Children and youth aged 4 - 17 years are invited to join our Youth Ministries Program during the 11 am service in the Activities Building (located across the breezeway from our main parking lot). Sign-in begins at 10:45 am. All children must be registered and signed-in to attend. Parents are welcome to join the children for Communion at Noon in the Activities Building. Snack & sign-outs begin at 12:15 pm.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

The MISSION of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The VISION of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value and resisting exclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We want to continue to be the conduits of a faith where everyone is included in the family of God, and where all parts of our being are welcomed at God's table.

Community

Offering a safe and open community for people to worship, learn and grow in their faith is our deep desire. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

Providing a message of liberation from the oppressive religious environment of our day or to those experiencing God for the first time is what guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives will be transformed.

Social Action

Working to talk less and do more, we are committed to resisting the structures that oppress people and standing with to those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems, being guided always by our commitment to Global Human Rights.

OPTION 1

CRUISING THE BIBLE:

A QUEER JOURNEY THROUGH SCRIPTURE

MONDAYS JUNE 6 - JUNE 27 ACTIVITIES BLDG. 7 PM

MUST BE 18 YEARS OF AGE TO ATTEND

Too often, we focus on the six "clobber" passages in the Bible when talking about our sexuality and spirituality. Are there other "queer" passages or even gay figures in the bible? Is it possible that Jesus was gay? What about sexuality in general in the Bible (homo and hetero)? For years, many folks have been asking, "What does the Bible say about homosexuality?" but for June (Pride Month), we will instead be asking, "What do queer folk have to say about the Bible?"

Join us on Monday nights in June for a 4-week small group study on what it means to read the Bible from a gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender perspective. Using our personal stories, video clips and music from pop culture, and RARELY discussed scripture passages, we will open our eyes to read the Bible like it has never been read before!

Due to the graphic content of some scripture passages, you must be 18 years of age or older to participate.

OPTION 2

FRIENDSHIP AT THE MARGINS

WEDNESDAYS JUNE 1 - JUNE 29 ACTIVITIES BLDG. 7 PM

Is friendship a religious vocation? What do our friendships with people say about our friendship with God? What does it mean to treat marginalized people with friendship instead of viewing them as potential converts? In our anonymous and dehumanized world, the simple practice of friendship is radically countercultural. Join us on Wednesday nights in June for a 5-week small group study on how unlikely friendships at the margins, with all of their tensions and ambiguities, can actually enhance our spirituality and those we befriend.

Using the book, Friendship at the Margins, we will discuss the importance of friendships and relationships, the ways that friendship is connected to what God calls us to be in the world, and what friendship has to do with social justice. Through group discussion, stories, and prayer, we will not only look at the theme of friendship, but we will gain new friends along the way. All are welcome.

Fishers Net Prayer Ministry

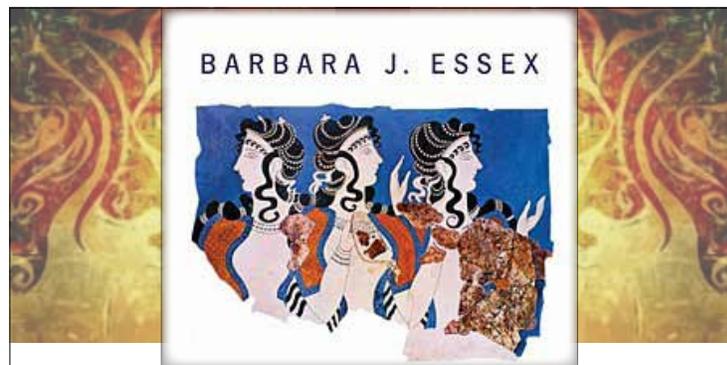

A Dialogue With God

by Ron Reeser

The start of major projects at work, home, or church can be exciting. But what about small things like driving to the store, doing dishes, mission work, giving to a food pantry, giving of your tithes, talent, and time? Are they all done in the name of Christ or just some? What about the mundane and routine activities which are done innately without consciousness? How many times do we find ourselves in the midst of a project or activity that is not going "as planned" and then remember to pray, crying out for God to save us? And yet, we seem to give thanks to God for a successful project, task, or mission work well-completed. Or do we? When will I learn? When will we learn?

Dear Creator, Great Director and Guide, help me to start everything in prayer. Help me to petition your divine guidance so that you are included in all I do, so that I am able to accomplish all things in Christ's name. I know all things are possible in and through you. Remind me to keep my communication and dialogue open to your guidance, being consistently honest while expanding your dominion. In your many names, amen.

Francisco X. Alarcón

Alarcón is an award winning Chicano poet and educator. Born in Los Angeles in 1954, he is author of eleven volumes of poetry including From the Other Side of Night: Selected and New Poems and Snake Poems: An Aztec Invocation. A professor at the University of California, Davis, Alarcón moved back and forth to Mexico during his childhood, getting his education in both countries and in both languages. This bicultural education is inherent in his work and ideology. One of his earliest and most painful experiences was the double discrimination he suffered as a child, being a "Pocho" (an Americanized Mexican) and a Chicano. Alarcón understands that his sexual orientation is marginal both in the Anglo and Chicano worlds: I am/a nomad/in a country/of settlers/a drop/of oil/in a glass/of water ... Together with Rodrigo Reyes and Juan Pablo Gutiérrez, Francisco is co-author of Ya Vas, Carnal, the first collection of homoerotic poetry published by openly gay Latino male poets in the US. Although Alarcón is one of our few openly gay Chicano poets, his poetry is not centered on his gay experience alone but takes in similarly important vital issues such as his ethnicity and his views on femininity and equal rights. He recently opened the digitally hot Facebook page POETS RESPONDING TO SB 1070, and encourages all to post poems, artwork, and comments.

Are you an “innie” or an “outie”?

The last Landscape and Facilities Work Day in March was a big success! The “innies” were able to do many indoor projects, such as organizing the Storage Room in the Activities Building and vacuuming and cleaning the Sanctuary.

Our “outies” tackled some of our outdoor tasks such as straightening parking lot stops and flower bed maintenance. Whether you prefer the indoor chores or love being outside, your church needs you!

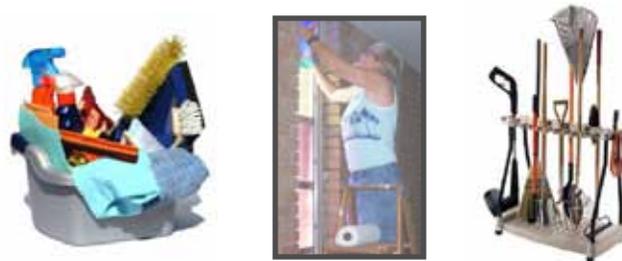

Although it is technically a “work day”, it is also a lot of fun. We are able to fellowship with one another, share a laugh or two (or many more!), share a meal and prayer time, and spend time with new and old friends, all while beautifying and cleaning our landscape and facilities.

Resurrection MCC has a huge outdoor campus and 2 large buildings and a crew of one (yes, ONE) who maintains it year-round.

Work Days provide you with a chance to come out and lend a hand to help out your “second home”...your church home. Things don't get done unless we do them... just like your own home.

Please help your church, consider yourself “one of the family” and join us on our next Work Day. We can't do it without your help!

SO....WHAT ARE YOU????
