

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN
CONFESS

OCTOBER 16, 2011

We Gather

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with The Friend -- the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

Call to Experience

One traditional element of worship is known as the Call To Worship, a practice that intentionally invites us to come into the presence of God. For the next 8 weeks we will intentionally call ourselves to experience the presence of God.

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone,
To heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bears the image of God's face;
Let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Morning has Broken

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world

Sweet the rains new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning
Born of the one light, Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's recreation of the new day

Morning has broken like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world

Making Confession, Hearing Confession: A History of the Cure of Souls

By Annemarie S. Kidder

What to confess? Most people tend to talk to God somewhat spontaneously, if only under their breath. Saying a prayer of gratitude or uttering a cry for help seems to come naturally and no long preparation or deliberation is needed. Baring our soul in the company of another and in the presence of God is a form of prayer, though one involving some prior reflection. What is it I want to tell God in the company of another, and from what burden do I need to be freed? Into what segments have I sliced my time, my attention, and my activities. What are my life's priorities and what its recurring joys and repeated frustrations? There are times throughout the day when I do not like myself. Where am I true to myself and where am I marring the image of God intended for me to demonstrate.

So You Think You Can Confess?

We Hear the Word

This translation is courtesy of The Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures, edited by Priests for Equality through the Inclusive Language Project, initiated in 1988.

Their goal, "to translate the entire Bible into gender inclusive language by July of 2001," is part of their larger mission, which is to "affirm efforts to use sexually balanced language and images in Church liturgy, publications, education and preaching." It is the understanding of this consortium of Christian ministers, lay leaders, scholars, educators and social activists that "language, in itself, can help educate us toward equality."

We Receive

All congregations in MCC practice an open communion. You do not need to be a member of this church or any church to come to the table and receive communion.

During Communion you will be offered bread and cup with a brief blessing.

We use grape juice for the cup so that all may participate. Gluten-free wafers are available from the communion server on the far right. Simply say, "Gluten free."

Todas las congregaciones de ICM (Iglesias de las Comunidades Metropolitana) practican una comunión abierta. Creemos en el amor de Dios incondicional para todas las personas.

Si deseas tomar la comunión en español, por favor dirígete hacia al ministro de comunión localizado hacia la izquierda y pídele, "En español, por favor."

One : Come just as you are, hear the spirit call. Come just as you are;
Come and see, come, receive, come and live forever.

All: Life everlasting and strength for today; taste the living water and never thirst again. Come, just as you are, hear the spirit call. Come just as you are. Come and see, come receive, come and live forever.

Communion Songs / Cantos de Comunción

Just as I am

Just as I am, without one plea,
but that Your love was shared for me,
and that You bidst me come to You,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, You will receive,
will welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Your promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

Just as I am, Your love unknown hath broken every barrier down;
Now, to be Yours, yes Yours alone,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

In Remembrance of Me

In remembrance of me, eat this bread. In remembrance of me, drink this wine.
In remembrance of me, pray for the time when God's own will is done.
In remembrance of me, heal the sick. In remembrance of me, feed the poor.
In remembrance of me, open the door and let all people in, let them in.

Take, eat, and be comforted; Drink and remember, too,
That this is my body and precious blood shed for you, shed for you.
In remembrance of me, search for truth. In remembrance of me, always love.
In remembrance of me, don't look above, but in your heart,
Look in your heart for God. Do this in remembrance of me.

Draw Me Close

Draw me close to You
Never let me go
I lay it all down again
To hear You say that I'm Your friend

You are my desire
No one else will do
'Cause nothing else could take Your place
To feel the warmth of Your embrace
Help me find the way
Bring me back to You

You're all I want
You're all I've ever needed
You're all I want
Help me know You are near

Shout to the Lord

My Jesus, my Savior, Lord, there is none like You;
All of my days I want to praise the wonders of Your mighty love.
My Comfort, my Shelter, Tower of refuge and strength,
Let every breath, all that I am, never cease to worship You.

Shout to the Lord, all the Earth, let us sing;
Power and majesty, praises we sing!
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar at the sound of Your name.
I sing for joy at the work of Your hands,
Forever I'll love You, forever I'll stand;
Nothing compares to the promise I have in You!

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

The MISSION of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The VISION of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value and resisting exclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We want to continue to be the conduits of a faith where everyone is included in the family of God, and where all parts of our being are welcomed at God's table.

Community

Offering a safe and open community for people to worship, learn and grow in their faith is our deep desire. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

Providing a message of liberation from the oppressive religious environment of our day or to those experiencing God for the first time is what guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives will be transformed.

Social Action

Working to talk less and do more, we are committed to resisting the structures that oppress people and standing with to those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems, being guided always by our commitment to Global Human Rights.

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN...?

Are you familiar with the television reality show called So You Think You Can Dance? If you are, then you know that dance troupes and individual dancers from many different places, show up to face a panel of judges who ultimately decide whether the contestants can REALLY dance or not.

It's true, isn't it, that we often THINK we are doing something really well until we are forced to explore and expand our understanding of what is possible? We all know it's true but it's not always easy to face it.

I want to ask each of you to join me in a journey that will invite you to . . .

EXPERIENCE God in new ways

ENGAGE your spiritual life with intention

EMBODY the compassion of Christ in the world

Throughout September and October we will revisit the most basic parts of the spiritual life and challenge ourselves to understand and know them more profoundly. We will stretch, expand, and enlarge our capacity to be in relationship with God and with each other.

This is a journey worth taking no matter where you believe yourself to be in this experience we call "being human." I invite you, I urge you, I challenge you and I even dare you . . .

So You Think You Can . . . ?

Blessings on the journey,

GOODNESS OF GOD

MONDAYS

7 PM | CHAPEL

Do you ever wonder where God is when everything in your life seems to feel like hell? How can a good God allow for such evil and suffering in the world? In this class, we will explore different Christian responses to the problem of suffering in the world in order to deepen our own relationship with God. We will begin with a review of traditional Christian perspectives on theodicy (the justification for how a good God allows evil to operate in the world) and continue with more progressive perspectives. This class is ideal for pastoral care ministers and anyone else wishing to deepen their faith by understanding different views of suffering.

A Dialogue With God

by Ron Reeser

When earth experiences a lack of water, it dries up, cracks and no longer gives or supports life - vegetation, animals and in many cases, humans. Drought is awful and can create a life of unknown questions (When will it rain? When will life return again?). Just as all living beings depend upon water to survive, human bodies are made up of 50 to 80 percent of water, depending upon one's age. Is it any wonder, when we lack God within our life, 50 to 80 percent of our being could be suffering or worse yet, dying? Throughout the bible, there are many examples of how Jesus is and freely gives living water. John 4:14 reads, "Indeed, the water I give [you] will become in [you] a spring of water welling up to eternal life." We must protect this living water from drying up by following God's directions, surrounding ourselves with fellow believers, and continually praying with thanksgiving in our hearts, so that our Christ-given spring of living water does not dry up, but leads to eternal life.

Dear Sustainer and Giver of Life, we come to you today and now to drink from your spring, so that your spring will continually well up with us, giving us life as if in heaven. Protect us from the droughts of the world. Enable us to be strong for one other, building-up one another, encouraging one another, and continually praying for your will. Oh, loving God, we humbly and with awe, thank you in your many names. Amen.

Do you have a prayer request? Send your requests to Prayers@ResurrectionMCC.org. Requests are immediately prayed over by the Fishers Net Prayer Team. If you would like to join the Fishers Net Prayer Family (become a team member) or the Fishers Net Extended Prayer Family (join our email list), please contact us at Prayers@ResurrectionMCC.org and one of our team members will then contact you.

We Offer Ourselves

Last year we approved several ministry priorities, set our budget to accomplish our goals, and projected our income. Our projections were based on the pledges made through the "Church Alive" campaign, the Imagine Reality Capital Campaign, as well as the giving trends of this congregation over the most recent years. We are on track with our ministry goals but are experiencing the strain of the typical "summer dip" in our giving. Our church's cash reserves have dropped rapidly in just the past couple of months even while our worship attendance and ministry programming have grown. Unless giving rebounds, we will soon be forced to significantly reduce the amount of worship, hospitality, transformation, and mission our church can provide. Please join me in taking the necessary steps today to ensure our impact in the lives of this community continues to thrive.

Blessings to you,
 Rev. Janice Ladd, Executive Pastor

I will Do all the good I can, By all the means I can, In all the ways I can, In all the places I can, At all the times I can, To all the people I can, As long as ever I can. Amen.

Rev. Pat's Personal Testimony of the importance of Excel of the Armadillo

For too many years the only sense of community that I experienced was centered around my career. Although we were a tight knit group, we shared little of ourselves outside of the work environment. It wasn't until I became a member of an MCC church, enrolled in an intensive Bible study group, and spent 9 months with a special group of 30 people, that I truly felt my life had become enriched with a strong sense of meaning and purpose. For the first time in my life I knew that if I ever needed someone to be there for me all I had to do was pick up the phone and give any one of my new sisters or brothers in faith a call. And I also knew that I would be there for them, no matter what. What made this group so special was our intense study of the Word, coupled with significant community building activities and prayer. We had grown closer in our relationship with God and with our faith community. Serving God and serving the community became for us the means to joy, peace, love, and fulfillment.

So what does any of this have to do with Excel of the Armadillo? When I was the pastor of the MCC in Galveston, I was asked if I would like to participate in an Excel retreat. Being a part of that faith retreat brought back a whole flood of memories of my first experience as part of a meaningful community. The beauty of Excel of the Armadillo was that they managed to achieve in one weekend what took 9 months to accomplish in the group that I had previously taken my journey with in MCC. In my weekend with Excel, I saw lives transformed. I saw people draw closer to God and closer to each other. I saw how people took what they learned and what they experienced and put it into practice in their daily walk with God. I believe that we all felt genuinely connected that weekend - a bond that will last the rest of our lives. No matter where you are in your faith journey, whether you are just starting out or you are a seasoned traveler, Excel of the Armadillo is here for you. Join us on this retreat for an intense time of song, laughter, tears, fun, renewal, and drawing closer to God and to each other.
