We Prepare

Many believe this hymn was written during the US Civil War to encourage the troops through battle.

That is actually completely untrue! This hymn was written as a children's hymn in 1865 in the town of Horbury, England. The writer was a Sunday School teacher taking his classes to a Sunday School rally in the neighboring town. He wanted a song they could sing as they marched. The song is not about war but about marching to a destination in solidarity.

We Worship

This hymn was written in 1978 by Jeffery Rowthorn. The original tune for its designation is one that is unfamiliar to most US congregations, so we use this tune. Each stanza in the text has a precise structure, beginning with a word from Jesus and moving through a prayer for enabling our response to that word.

Additional text was written by Steven Couch to incorporate our theme for today's worship service.

We Hear the Word

The pattern of the letter from Peter is typical. The letter serves as an exhortation to holiness issues in an appeal for mutual love within the community. It is also another reminder that we are new in Christ.

The Gradual is a response used in the traditional Mass. It is normally sung after the reading of the Epistle. But in modern services it is used sometimes to respond to another reading other than the Gospel.

The Gloria is also part of the Mass. It is always sung following the reading of the Gospel except during Lent and Advent. The Gloria always proclaims the Glory of God and always requests "peace" to all people.

I Peter 1:21-23

It is through Christ that you are believers in God, the God who raised Christ from the dead into glory. Your faith and hope, then, are centered in God.

By obedience to the truth, you have purified yourselves for a genuine love of your sisters and brothers. Therefore, love one another constantly, from the heart. Your rebirth has come not from a perishable seed, but from an imperishable one - the living and enduring word of God.

Gradual

Friend of God

Who am I that you are mindful of me?
That you hear me when I call?
Is it true that you are thinking of me?
How you love, it's amazing.
I am a friend of God. I am a friend of God.
I am a friend of God, you call me friend.
I am a friend of God. I am a friend of God.
I am a friend of God, you call me friend.
God Almighty, Lord of Glory, you have called me friend.

We Sing

This song was written here in Houston and premiered at Lakewood Church. The song was later featured as the title and underlying current of a Showtime documentary Friend of God. The creators of the documentary went to mega-churches trying to explore their phenomenon. They also talked about those that these churches decided were not friends of God. The result was quite interesting.

We Receive

At Resurrection MCC, and at all MCC churches around the world, communion is open to all who wish to partake. Simply come forward as the ushers direct you.

God, we praise you for this feast that calls us to friendship with you.

With these gifts, grow in friendship with God and neighbor.

We Sing

We sing as a body during the distribution of the elements. If you do not wish to sing, please be in an attitude of prayer for those who wish to meditate during this time.

We stand on the chorus of the final communion song in celebration of the Feast of our God.

We Are an Offering

We lift our voices, we lift our hands,
We lift our lives up to you, we are an offering.
Lord, use our voices, Lord, use our hands,
Lord, use our lives they are yours, we are an offering.
All that we have, all that we are, All that we hope to be, we give to you.
We give to you. We lift our voices, we lift our hands,
We lift our lives up to you, we are an offering.
We are an offering.

As the Deer

As the deer panteth for the water, so my soul longeth after thee.
You alone are my heart's desire and I long to worship thee.
You alone are my strength, my shield; To you alone, may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire, and I long to worship thee.

Sacred Reading

A faithful friend is a sure shelter. Whoever finds one has a rare treasure.

~ Ecclesiasticus 6:14, Jerusalem Bible

Against the individualism that renders modern life so lonely, Christianity insists upon life as fundamentally social, a matter of living with and for one another in concentric circles of intimacy.

St. Paul uses analogies of friendship to characterize his vision of the church, where the truth is spoken in love and one's joys and sorrows are intimately shared.

~ W. Paul Jones from "Friendship and Circles of Commitment," Weavings May/June 1992, 38.

Amy-Jill Levine, a Jewish scholar who teaches New Testament at Vanderbilt Divinity School, says that when her son was young she'd bring him along to class, wearing his yarmulke and fringes.

And then she'd say to the class for the benefit of the Christian students, "When you talk about Jews or Judaism, think about this child. Say nothing that would hurt him, and say nothing that will cause a member of your congregation to hurt him. Do not use Judaism as a foil, do not bear false witness against it, and do not make the Gospel of Love into a message of hate."

~ Currents in Theology and Mission, December 2007.

Poet Scott Cairns recounts an interview with Mother Teresa in which she was asked what she says to God when she prays.

"I don't say anything," she said. "I just listen."

The interviewer then asked what God says to her.

"God doesn't say anything," she responded. "God just listens."

~ Cruce, Winter 2006.

Spiritual Maturity & Application

Mother Teresa had a friendship with God in which she simply shared silence with God. This reveals her intimacy with God on one hand, and on the other hand her ability to peacefully trust that a shared presence between friends is sometimes enough.

First, consider Mother Teresa's approach to God. Do you consider God a friend? If so, how is this friendship experienced and honored. Could this be considered a "two way" friendship?

Now consider your friendship with others. Are you comfortable just being in each other's presence, sharing silence? Do gaps or pauses in your conversations make you uneasy? Do you find yourself rushing to fill in the blank?

Consider the value of "open space" in friendships.

Reflect on this question from spiritual writer John Mogabgab: "How is friendship a means of grace through which we can enter more deeply into life with God?"

Think about a friend who has "transformed" you in some way. Surprise them with a "just because" card. Take the time to hand write the card and send it through the mail. This extra attention will communicate how much you value the friendship. You are saying, "Friend, you are worth this extra effort." Furthermore, your friend will so appreciate something besides a flyer or bill in the mailbox.

As part of your note, be specific in mentioning how this friend has touched or influenced you. Perhaps write a line that begins, "You have inspired me. . ."

Please stop by the Concierge Desk located next to Inspirations, our coffee café and gift shop, to receive a welcome gift. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church with a primary outreach to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community. We are a part of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, founded by Rev. Troy D. Perry in Los Angeles, California on October 6, 1968. Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people, and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality.

The Mission of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The Vision of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. To that end, we embrace five core beliefs:

We believe in God's unconditional love for everyone.

We believe in the saving grace of Jesus Christ and the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit.

We believe in including everyone and excluding no one.

We believe in joyfully providing access to Christ-centered spiritual nourishment and Biblical truths.

We believe that each of us will discover our spirituality through active participation in the work of God and in the pursuit of health, wholeness, and justice for everyone.

Again, welcome!

Equality Ministry Initiative: Creating a Community of Respect at Resurrection

A Community of Respect? Do you want to be a part of it? Can you imagine that it can be done-now, here at Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church? If you value this-and you want to be a part of it-now is the time to sign up! Join the Equality Ministry in The Gathering Place after services today, where members of this ministry will provide you with an opportunity to sign a Resolution of Respect.

By signing, you are pledging to take personal responsibility for standing up against all forms of prejudice and discrimination and commit yourself to creating a Church community and a world that is a Community of Respect.®

Working with the Anti-Defamation League's "No Place for Hate" program, Resurrection's Equality Ministry has submitted a Letter of Intent applying for certification as a Community of Respect. A number of activities and events have taken place in 2008 which qualify Resurrection for this certification; for example: Dialogue: Racism; A Raising of Voices Vigil Against Hate Crimes; and several of the Freedom to Marry Week activities. We are almost there-only a few more events to document and your active support by signing this pledge.

Why? A Way to Live our Values...

Resurrection MCC has as one of its core values a commitment to sustaining a community in which the dignity of every individual is respected. Key to this value is fostering an environment of civility and mutual respect by preventing acts of bias, identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, age or religion. Such actions interfere with our success and violate our core values and beliefs.

At Resurrection we worship, play, learn and work in a culture that defines itself in terms of intellectual exchange, appreciation of individual differences and respect for each individual's personal dignity. We believe that each of us will discover our spirituality through active participation in the work of God, in pursuit of health, wholeness and justice for everyone. Our diverse blend of members, friends, staff, volunteers and clergy is a tremendous resource, and we all benefit from this mix of perspectives and experiences. For some, this community provides an opportunity to meet and interact with those from other races, cultures and backgrounds. It is through this rich environment that we teach each other and future generations the importance of understanding and valuing every individual's opinions and experiences.

While Resurrection is committed to a respectful and inclusive environment, it can only fulfill that commitment through the actions of individual members and friends of our church community. Each one of us is responsible for treating every member and friend of the church with dignity and respect. If one of us engages in harassment or discrimination, the person subject to that behavior will not feel respected or genuinely valued, or that s/he is an equal member. That person may stop contributing a unique perspective or may lose a feeling of commitment to the community and leave. When one person engages in acts of bias, many of us suffer the effects.

Together we can create and maintain a respectful and inclusive environment that provides the support and opportunity necessary for each member of our community to feel loved, grow in faith, spirituality and experience community.

Please stop by one of the tables and sign the Resolution of Respect. The content of the resolution may also be found to the right of this article.

COMMUNITY OF RESPECT®

A NO PLACE FOR HATE® PROGRAM OF THE ADL

By signing this Resolution of Respect you are taking personal responsibility for standing up against all forms of prejudice and discrimination and committing yourself to creating a world that is a Community of Respect.®

I pledge from this day forward to do my best to combat prejudice and to stop those who, because of hate or ignorance, would hurt anyone or violate their civil rights.

I will try at all times to be aware of my own biases and seek to gain understanding of those who I perceive as being different from myself.

I will speak out against all forms of prejudice and discrimination. I will reach out to support those who are targets of hate.

I will think about specific ways my community members can promote respect for people and create a prejudice-free zone.

I firmly believe that one person can make a difference and that no person can be an "innocent" bystander when it comes to opposing hate.

I recognize that respecting individual dignity, achieving equality and promoting intergroup harmony are the responsibilities of all people.

By signing this pledge, I commit myself to creating a community that is a Community of Respect.®

By now, most of you should have received in the mail your invitation to participate in the Imagine Capital Campaign. The goal is bold: we plan to raise two million dollars over three years, over and beyond our regular tithes and offerings. If this sounds like a crazy request, let me take you back to a time when fourteen people began meeting when no one thought you could be gay and Christian...yet they founded a church. They dared to believe that God's love included everyone...and they started a movement. They had the audacity to give their lives to something greater than themselves...and they created countless moments of spiritual transformation. And so I ask, what do you dare to imagine? What do you dare to believe? What is your call today? Are you ready to make a bold stake in our movement of social justice? Can you imagine the lives we could touch with God's message of love and hope?

Resurrection, it is time! We can do this! Together we can do more than any one of us could imagine. Together we can make a three year commitment that will seed a future for decades to come. Together we will accomplish the dreams God has placed on our hearts. We have a bold mission to spread the message of God's unconditional love and a great vision to attract, include, mature, and mobilize people for God's purposes. Your legacy gift will enable the financial health and long-term stability needed to accomplish this calling.

I ask you to make your commitment today and watch what God can do when we dare to dream, believe, give, live...imagine.

Why Become a Legacy Giver?

- To stimulate our worship experience through audio/visual enhancements.
- To forge new friendships through a revitalized, enlarged Welcome Center.
- To design a space that will transform lives by converting the Activities Building into the Life Development Center.
- To create committed leaders for tomorrow through expanded children and youth programs.
- To inspire adults to vitality and wholeness through increased education, wellness, community involvement, and spiritual growth opportunities.
- To reach millions with the Would Jesus Discriminate? billboard and marketing campaign.
- To impact the lives of those oppressed through further partnerships with organizations focused on social justice.
- To create financial health and long-term stability through increased payments on our debt.
