We Gather

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with The Friend -- the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

This song eloquently announces today’s hope for tomorrow’s Church. Written by United Methodist Deacon Laurie Zelman and contemporary composer, Mark A. Miller, the lyrics illuminate a vision of the Church as the starting place to model a peaceful and just world. The music, by Mark A. Miller, matches the intention of the lyrics, using stanzas as the necessary preparatory ground that leads to the joyful affirmation that “All are welcome” in the refrain. As Christians, this song holds us accountable to Jesus’ message of inclusion and equality.

Welcome (Let's Walk Together)

1. Let's walk together for a while and
2. Let's talk together of a time when
3. Let's dream together of the day when ask where we begin to build a world where dearth and heaven are one love can grow and hope can enter in

be the hands of healing and to plant the seeds of peace

joy will set the table as we join our hands to pray mourn ing turns to dancing every creature lifts its voice

Refrain

Sing ing wel come, Sing ing wel come, wel come to this place. You're in vi ted to come and know God's grace. All are wel come the love of God to share 'cause all of us are wel come here;

+ All are wel come in this place.

+ Please rise in body or spirit.
We Listen

Luke’s passage opens with intrigue as the Sadducees, who have a clear understanding that there is no resurrection, are asking Jesus questions about the resurrection. Jesus answers the questions by describing how heaven and earth are not the same. The ways of God are not the ways of humanity. God’s judgments are not our judgments. Things do not work in heaven the way they work on earth—thank God! Jesus answers the question by saying that in heaven even the lowliest of the society would be considered “like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection” (v.36). This radical statement of the gospel, that in heaven there are no sociopolitical strata, is good news even today. The mystery of the resurrection revealed by Jesus is that heaven is a place where those who have been dehumanized will be restored; those who have been oppressed will be set free; and those who have been treated as inferior will be raised up and called beloved.

First Reading

2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose God called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Creator, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Musical Interlude

God, in Your Grace (Love is Your way)

Let us stand still, look at each other, sister and brother thwarting your will: teach us good care, grace to seek pardon, reclaim your garden, riches to share.

God, in your grace, God in your mercy, turn us to you to transform the world, turn to you to transform the world!

Second Reading

+ Second Reading

Kedric Brown (9 am)
Wayne Wiggins (11 am)

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, ‘Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.’ Jesus said to them, ‘Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now God not of the dead, but of the living; for to God all of them are alive.’

Musical Interlude

God, in Your Grace (Love is Your Way)

Love is your way, love is your nature, blessing each creature, lighting each day; grace is your sign, gift of forgiveness, chalice that changes water to wine.

God, in your grace, God in your mercy, turn us to you to transform the world, turn to you to transform the world!

We Receive

All congregations in MCC practice an open communion. We believe that communion is a visible sign of Christ’s presence and God’s grace that each one of us, friend or member, may receive. Simply come forward as the ushers direct.

During Communion you will be offered bread and cup with a brief blessing. We use grape juice for the cup so that all may participate.

If you desire a deeper partnering in prayer (intercessory prayer), prayer ministers are available at the Side Altar during communion. The Fishers Net Prayer Ministry is also available following both services to pray with you.

We Are Thankful, O Lord

Obrigado, Senhor (We Are Thankful, O Lord)

Obrigado, Senhor, Aleluia.
Obrigado, Senhor, Aleluia
Obrigado, Senhor, Aleluia.
Aleluia, Aleluia, Aleluia.
We are thankful, O Lord, Alleluia.
We are thankful, O Lord, Alleluia.
We are thankful, O Lord, Alleluia.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
Here at Thy Table, Christ

Here at Thy table, Christ, this sacred hour,
O let us feel Thee near, in loving power,
Calling our thoughts away from grief within,
As to Thy banquet hall we enter in.

Sit at the feast, dear Friend, break thou the bread;
Fill thou the cup that our souls shall be fed;
that we may find in Thee pardon and peace,
And from all bondage win a full release.

So shall our life of faith be full, be sweet;
And we shall find our strength for each day meet;
Fed by Thy living bread, all hunger past,
We shall be satisfied, and saved at last.

Come then, O Holy Christ, feed us, we pray;
Touch with Thy gentle hand each common day;
Making our earthly life full of Thy grace,
Till in the home of heaven we find our place. Amen.

There's a Spirit of Love in This Place

There's a spirit of love in this place, there's a spirit of love in this place, you can't see it but its there, just as precious as the air,
there's a spirit of love in this place.

There's the presence of peace in this room, there's the presence of peace in this room,
in God's tenderness is found peace that passes human bounds,
there's the presence of peace in this room.

O, Alleluia, sing alleluia, we bless your holy name. O Alleluia, sing alleluia,
there's a spirit of love in this place.

There's a space for grace in our hearts, there's a space for grace in our hearts, it's in learning to forgive that our sprits truly live, there's a space for grace in our hearts.

O, Alleluia, sing Alleluia we bless your holy name. O, Alleluia, sing alleluia,

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church with a primary outreach to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community. Metropolitan Community Churches, founded in 1968, is a human-rights movement and ministry operating as a Christian denomination in 22 countries around the world. MCC is an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, and homophobia can result in violence and death.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God’s inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life’s questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

The Mission of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God’s unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The Vision of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God’s family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value and resisting exclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We want to continue to be the conduits of a faith where everyone is included in the family of God, and where all parts of our being are welcomed at God’s table.

Community

Offering a safe and open community for people to worship, learn and grow in their faith is our deep desire. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

Providing a message of liberation from the oppressive religious environment of our day or to those experiencing God for the first time is what guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives will be transformed.

Social Action

Working to talk less and do more, we are committed to resisting the structures that oppress people and standing with to those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems, being guided always by our commitment to Global Human Rights.

October 27 - November 17

Enneagram means “nine points” and refers to a system describing nine personality types which can be engaged as a tool for greater self-understanding. The healthiest characteristics of our personalities become accessible to us as we work on ourselves. As we gain clarity, awareness and integration regarding the positive potentials in all nine types, we become increasingly available and present in our relationships with God, ourselves and others. Join Spiritual Director Cathleen Shell, Sue Schreiber and Rev. Kristen for this 4-part introductory series open to all, especially oriented toward those on the Seeking and Exploring Paths in their Journey of Faith!
Will you dance with me?

“... we must engage the problems we face, including our own, and not analyze or pray them to death. Prayer or action? The question evaporates. We must pray and move our arms at the same time.”

- Larry Dossey, M.D., Prayer is Good Medicine

When I contemplate upon the words of Larry Dossey, I reflect on how I or anyone achieves goals set. Goals for good health, better employment, a closer walk with Christ or that new car. Yes, I pray and also move my arms, align myself with Christ and the situation at hand and goals set, are accomplished. Were all goals met? No. Will all goals be met? No. However, when one goal is not met, others came into view, but all through prayer. Whatever your prayer, listen for God’s direction and follow-through. We cannot just sit on the pew and pray, we must get up and dance!

Dear Sustainer Creator God, Thank you for being with me in my times of need. Thank you for providing for me when there seems to be no hope. I praise you for your sustaining abundance, grace and showing me love which feels so pure, it can only be YOU within. Oh, Lord, we collectively thank you. In your many names. Amen.

Join us each Sunday in the Chapel between services or near the Prayer Wall after our 11 am Worship service for one-on-one personal prayer. You can also send your requests to Prayers@ResurrectionMCC.org. Requests are immediately prayed over by the Fishers Net Prayer members and published each week in a Praise and Prayer email (unless your request is to remain anonymous). Growing stronger in Christ and realizing our Prayers together.

~ Fishers Net Prayer Ministry ~

Greetings Resurrection MCC!

What a joy it is to be able to introduce myself as your new Director of Connections! I am so excited to be joining you on December 5, 2010 as we begin the season of Advent and open the door for God’s goodness to be shown anew in our lives. I will be bringing the spiritual encouragement on that Sunday and am excited to worship with you! For the past three years, I have been ministering at the Sunshine Cathedral MCC in Fort Lauderdale, FL where I began as an intern. After my ordination in 2008, I continued as an Assistant to the Senior Pastor, and the Director of Religious Education and Volunteer Ministries. My prior work experience includes working with youth, guest lecturing, music ministry, devotional writing, hospital chaplaincy, and labor and community organizing.

Ten years ago, I graduated from MacArthur High School here in Houston, and soon after, I moved to Tulsa, OK where I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in New Testament Studies from Oral Roberts University. Three years later, I received a Master of Divinity degree from Episcopal Divinity School (EDS) in Cambridge, MA. While attending EDS, I was honored with the 2007 J. Norman Hall Prize for my achievements in peace and justice work. I was also awarded the 2007 Tek Young Lin Prize for Excellence in Biblical Exegesis, honoring my commitment to make scripture come alive in a multicultural world. Because of my passion for developing lay leadership in the church and finding new ways to include people from multicultural backgrounds, I am currently pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree at EDS, where my focus is on developing biblical reading strategies for queer Latin@s.

As a native Houstonian, I am delighted that God has called me back to Texas where my journey first began. My own faith history is as diverse as a room full of MCCers! Whether Catholic, Pentecostal, Anglican, or New Thought – you name it, I’ve dabbled in it. Thank God I finally found what I’ve always been looking for in MCC!

I am looking forward to building connections among you, developing relationships with you, and learning from you at the same time. Thanks again for allowing me to join you on your faith journey as we dare to believe in the possibilities ahead for Resurrection MCC. Abundant blessings!

GOLD for GOD

Not sure what to do with that broken gold bracelet? Given up looking for the mate to that one gold earring? Want to put that old gold ring or chain to work for God?

On Sunday, November 14, the Resurrection MCC fundraising committee will be hosting Gold for God, a gold for cash exchange event. The event will offer several ways for participants to contribute to Resurrection MCC:

1. Between now and November 14, place your unwanted gold, platinum or silver in one of the Gold for God envelopes. At the event, your items will be tested for purity and value and exchanged for cash, which will be donated to Resurrection MCC. Gold for God envelopes are available at all entrances to Sanctuary. Donations may be placed in the offering baskets during services or given to a staff member.

2. Bring your unwanted gold, platinum, or silver items to the event and have them tested and valued. Participants have the option of:
   - Doing nothing. There is no obligation to sell or donate items.
   - Exchanging your items for cash and keeping all proceeds.
   - Donating a part of your cash exchange to Resurrection MCC.
   - Donating the entire cash exchange to Resurrection MCC.

The Gold Refinery will donate 10% of all proceeds to Resurrection MCC.

Moses said to the whole Israelite community, “This is what the LORD has commanded: From what you have, take an offering for the LORD. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the LORD an offering of gold, silver and bronze…

So, get out that unwanted gold and pick up a donation envelope, or mark your calendar and plan on joining us for, Gold for God! Light refreshments will be served.

Montrose Grace Place Needs Your Help!

Montrose Grace Place is a place of dignity and of respect for homeless youth of all sexual orientations and gender identities. On Thursday evenings, we provide a good meal, creative activities, referrals to social services, and healing relationships with safe, accepting adults.

And we need your help! We have a dire need for volunteers to help cook, set up, and clean up dinner on Thursday nights.

We also need a small, committed core of volunteers to be mentors. These volunteers will undergo a thorough training, and need to commit to two Thursdays a month, from 5:30-10:30 pm, for a year’s time. Hard work, but it’s worth it!

All volunteers need to pass a background check. Contact montrosegraceplace@gmail.com for an application.
