+ Hymn

Nearer, My God, to Thee

Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be, nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee!

There let the way appear, steps unto Heav'n;
All that Thou sendest me, in mercy giv'n;
Angels to beckon me nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee!

Or, if on joyful wing cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot, upward I'll fly,
Still all my song shall be, nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee!

We Gather

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with The Friend -- the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

We Prepare

As the prelude begins, the congregation is invited to be in an attitude of expectation for the worship of God.

Invocation

Our Invocation series this Lent is crafted from the beautiful poem "To You Who Are Kind, Who Walk in the Ways of Peace, I Say" by Jonathan Klate. Celebrating the "repair of the world" or "tikkun olam" that can be brought forth by God's peoples everywhere, Klate's poem is an exclusive in Tikkun magazine online and can be found in full there; information about "tikkun olam" can be found on page 7.

+ Please rise in body or spirit.

We Participate

This season we celebrate Creation and participate in the Living Word through creative accompaniment by music and movement, poetry and painting.

Psalm Reading with Percussion Accompaniment

DeJuana Jernigan (9 am)
Rev. Michael Diaz (11 am)

Psalm 32

Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Happy are those to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. While I kept silence, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,' and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you; at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters shall not reach them. You are a hiding-place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with glad cries of deliverance. I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you. Do not be like a horse or a mule, without understanding, whose temper must be curbed with bit and bridle, else it will not stay near you. Many are the torments of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds those who trust in the Lord. Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

+ Gospel Reading

Marcial Renteria (9 am)
Jules Gauvin (11 am)

Matthew 4:1-11

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. Jesus fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to Jesus, 'If you are the Child of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.' But Jesus answered, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."' Then the devil took Jesus to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Child of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, "God will command God's angels concerning you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' Jesus said to devil, 'Again it is written, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' Again, the devil took Jesus to a very high mountain and showed him all the countries of the world and their splendor; and the devil said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.' Jesus said to him, 'Away with you, Satan! for it is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve God only."' Then the devil left Jesus, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Congregational Collect

Vickey Gibbs

One: And to you/ who come to this moment/ by virtue of respect/for life and one another/ who cannot abide the discomfort of your brother or sister/ which might be eased by your kindness/who humbly become vessels for God's generous provision/through the merciful spirit that abides within/ and reveals that injustice to any is the concern of all ...
To you I say Thank you, my friend!
Let us prepare our offering with joy!
Let us pray:

All: For You, O God, formed us all with Your own hand!
You are a mender of hearts, You open us in love!
Let us be open vessels of your provision;
let our pantry overflow and our benevolence giving make the way for new hope and new starts for all who seek!
Let us reach and touch and uplift those whom you call our sisters and our brothers through this place we call our church home.
Indeed ...
"Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you;
at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters
shall not reach them."
Your children are hungry – let us give that they may be fed!
Your children are despairing – let us give that they may know hope!
For Jesus, the Sustainer of All, lives within us ...
Holy God, Restorer of the World, bless our gifts to your purposes ..
Amen.

Communion Songs

In Remembrance of Me

In remembrance of Me eat this bread, In remembrance of Me drink this wine
In remembrance of Me pray for the time, When God's own will is done

In remembrance of me heal the sick, In remembrance of me feed the poor
In remembrance of me open the door, And let your brother in, let him in

Take eat and be comforted, Drink and remember too
That this is my body and precious blood, Shed for you, shed for you

In remembrance of me always love, In remembrance of me don't look above
But in your heart, in your heart, Look in your heart for God

Do this in remembrance of Me, Do this in remembrance of Me
In remembrance of Me

Collect

Traditionally, the liturgical "collect" was a dialog between the celebrant and the people wherein the celebrant invites all to pray, then the celebrant concludes the time of prayer by "collecting" the peoples' prayers in a unified petition -referred to as a collect.

We Receive

All congregations in MCC practice an open communion. We believe that communion is a visible sign of Christ's presence and God's grace that each one of us, friend or member, may receive. Simply come forward as the ushers direct.

During Communion you will be offered bread and cup with a brief blessing.

We use grape juice for the cup so that all may participate.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the communion server on the far right. Simply say, "Gluten free."

If you desire a deeper partnering in prayer (intercessory prayer), prayer ministers are available at the Side Altar during communion. The Fishers Net Prayer Ministry is also available following both services to pray with you.

We Sing

We sing as a body during the distribution of the elements. If you do not wish to sing, please be in an attitude of prayer for those who wish to meditate during this time.

We Go Forth

God's love cannot be contained within the walls of this Sanctuary. Take the love of Christ from this place into your homes, neighborhoods and communities.

Prayer

If you are in need of prayer support, you can find prayer partners available during our time of communion or after worship in the right wing of the Sanctuary.

Open My Eyes

Open my eyes, that I may see glimpses of truth thou hast for me;
place in my hands the wonderful key that shall unclasp and set me free.

Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.
Open my eyes, illumine me, Spirit divine!

Open my ears, that I may hear voices of truth thou sendest clear;
and while the wavenotes fall on my ear,
everything false will disappear.

Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.
Open my ears, illumine me, Spirit divine!

Open my mouth, and let me bear gladly the warm truth everywhere;
open my heart and let me prepare love with thy children thus to share.

Silently now I wait for thee,
ready, my God, thy will to see.
Open my heart, illumine me, Spirit divine!

Draw Me Close to You

Draw me close to You
Never let me go
I lay it all down again
To hear You say that I'm Your friend

You are my desire
No one else will do
'Cause nothing else could take Your place
To feel the warmth of Your embrace
Help me find the way
Bring me back to You

You're all I want
You're all I've ever needed
You're all I want
Help me know You are near

Welcome!

If you are attending Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located in our Welcome Area, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you and your infants & children aged one month through three years! The nursery is located to the right of the Sanctuary entrance and is open during both the 9 & 11 am services.

Children and youth aged 4 - 17 years are invited to join our Youth Ministries Program during the 11 am service in the Activities Building (located across the breezeway from our main parking lot). Sign-in begins at 10:45 am. All children must be registered and signed-in to attend. Parents are welcome to join the children for Communion at Noon in the Activities Building. Snack & sign-outs begin at 12:15 pm.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

The MISSION of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The VISION of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value and resisting exclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We want to continue to be the conduits of a faith where everyone is included in the family of God, and where all parts of our being are welcomed at God's table.

Community

Offering a safe and open community for people to worship, learn and grow in their faith is our deep desire. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

Providing a message of liberation from the oppressive religious environment of our day or to those experiencing God for the first time is what guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives will be transformed.

Social Action

Working to talk less and do more, we are committed to resisting the structures that oppress people and standing with those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems, being guided always by our commitment to Global Human Rights.

Fasting on the Negative, Feasting on the Positive

6 Weeks - Open to All LENT CONNECTIONS GROUP:

FASTING ON THE NEGATIVE, FEASTING ON THE POSITIVE

WEDNESDAYS
MARCH 16 - APRIL 20
7 PM, ACTIVITIES BLDG.

Too often we choose to give up the most beautiful parts of ourselves, the very parts that God embraces. Too often we give up our inner joy. Our theme for Lent is "Fasting on the Negative and Feasting on the Positive." Using weekly in-depth scripture reflections with questions and discussion prompted by Robert Holden's book, Happiness Now!, we will embark on a spiritual exploration towards sacrificing self-doubt, feelings of unworthiness, fear, and shame.

It is geared toward serious self-reflection during Lent and strengthening one's relationship with God who lives WITHIN us. This six-week study meets on Wednesday evenings from 7 - 8:30 pm, beginning March 16. If you would like to be a part of a Lenten Connection Group and explore what means to stop chasing happiness and actually experience it, please sign-up in the Welcome Area after Worship services today or RSVP to RevMichael@ResurrectionMCC.org. This Lent will be a season you will never forget! Books available in Inspirations Coffee Cafe & Bookstore.

Fishers Net Prayer Ministry

A Dialogue With God

by Ron Reeser

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star, how I wonder what you are! Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky!" This wonderful nursery rhyme is a great reminder of intercessory prayer. When we pray for each other, our prayers are like "little diamonds in the sky," ever gleaming, ever present and ever sending God's Love and Light to shine upon our being. Yet, even though we do not know the star's name, God does as told in Isaiah 40:26, "...calling them all by name, by the greatness of [Gods'] might, and because [God] is strong in power not one [star] is missing," and neither is just one prayer. When you pray, when I pray, and when we pray together, God hears and responds.

Dear Sustainer, Creator, Father, Mother God, thank you for hearing our individual and collective prayers. Thank you for always knowing our name and knowing for whom we pray. Oh Lord, I am so humbled before you, full of awe, peace and your Grace upon me. In your many names. Amen

Do you have a prayer request? Send your requests to Prayers@ResurrectionMCC.org. Requests are immediately prayed over by the Fishers Net Prayer Team. If you would like to join the Fishers Net Prayer Family (become a team member) or the Fishers Net Extended Prayer Family (join our email list), please contact us at Prayers@ResurrectionMCC.org and one of our team members will then contact you.

Tikkun Olam: Repairing of the World

As we journey together through the Season of Lent this year, we will do so accompanied by a Jewish term, "tikkun olam." This ancient phrase simultaneously calls attention to a world in need of healing and our potential as children of God to realize that healing in and as God's presence in the world. As we commit ourselves to becoming freed or healed of those things which separate us from the reconciling love of God this Lent, all that we are and do is increasingly able to bear God's presence; we increasingly share in the repairing of the world - tikkun olam. In The History of "Tikkun Olam" Jill Jacobs writes: "The term tikkun olam may have originated as early as the second century CE, and its popularity as a religious concept has waxed and waned in the centuries that have followed. The words "tikkun olam" themselves defy easy translation. The Hebrew verb "t-k-n" is generally translated as "to fix," but can also mean "to establish." The word "olam," usually rendered as "world," also signifies eternity, especially in biblical and other very early texts. In some cases, the term refers to the physical world, in others to the societal order, and in still others to the dream of a fully realized divine manifestation. All of these ... make the phrase "tikkun olam" both difficult to understand and also richer in its complexity. It is hard to ignore, though, the tremendous staying power of this word as shorthand for any social change or service work. Enough people – both inside and outside of the Jewish community – find the term tikkun olam extraordinarily compelling ... In an individual's search for the meaning of his or her own life, it may be more compelling to think of one's every action as contributing to the repair of the cosmos, than to think of the same actions as simply accomplishing a small fix to a much larger problem. By combining the major themes of the four understandings of the term seen in traditional text, we come to a definition of tikkun olam as the process of fixing large societal problems, while maintaining a belief that our actions can have a positive effect on the greater human and divine world." As we walk in the Way of Jesus this season, let us daily come to embody the redemption, reconciliation, and salvation He bears in a world which is daily in need of tikkun olam. For God so loved the world.

ADVENTURING OUT IN CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

MARCH 27 • 1 - 5 PM • CHAPEL

"What does the Bible say about homosexuality?" and "What did Jesus say?" These questions are at the heart of this foundational Life Development offering for those seeking to reconcile their experience of God with their understanding of Scripture. Together we will engage the Bible through the lens of our personal faith experience as we consider the six "clobber passages" in light of current scholarship and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Open to all, this offering can provide Grounding for All Paths in the Journey of Faith!

Lunch will be served.
 RSVP and questions to RevKristen@ResurrectionMCC.org.

Resurrection MCC is so blessed to have a number of groups to minister at our worship services. Auditions are not required, but a desire to worship and share is. Feel free to visit any rehearsals to see which group might be the right place for you to serve.

GOSPEL ENSEMBLE

Tuesdays • 7 pm

Directed by Cassandra White, this group sings music in the African-American Gospel tradition, traditional Spirituals and contemporary music of all types. Reading music is not required for this group, but the ability to match pitch and sing a part separate from the melody is.

SANCTUARY CHOIR

Tuesdays • 7 pm

Directed by Cassandra White, this group sings mostly traditional church choral music with some contemporary music added from time to time. Reading music is not required for this group, but the ability to match pitch and sing a part separate from the melody is.

HEAVENSOUND HANDBELLS

Sundays • 1:30 pm

Currently there are several open spots in the handbell choir. Interested people need to have some music reading skills. Experience in ringing is not required. The director, Jim Winslett, will teach anyone the techniques of ringing.

If you have interest in any of these groups, please email our interim Director of Worship, Cassandra White, Cassandra@ResurrectionMCC.org
