Fun or Danger

We Gather

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with The Friend -- the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone,
To heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bears the image of God's face;
Let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

ONE: Jesus, today we join you at the wedding in Galilee and we ask that you call us to enter the joyful dimensions of life.

ALL: Jesus invites us to live joyfully.

ONE: Let us not be so involved and serious about life that we miss the many pleasures that are inherent in it.

ALL: Jesus invites us to live passionately.

ONE: Lighten us up O God, when we are feeling our work's heaviness.

ALL: Jesus invites us to live enthusiastically.

ONE: Help us remember that we need balance in our living.

ALL: Jesus invites us to live without guilt or hesitation.

ONE: Jesus, teach us that laughter and leisure are essential for our total health.

ALL: Jesus invites us to laugh out loud.

ONE: Jesus, may we follow your lead, throwing caution to the wind, and celebrate!

ALL: May it be so! Amen.

Trading My Sorrows

I'm trading my sorrow
I'm trading my shame
I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord

I'm trading my sickness
I'm trading my pain
I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord

*We say yes Lord, yes Lord, yes, yes Lord
Yes Lord yes Lord yes yes Lord
Yes Lord yes Lord yes yes Lord Amen*

I'm pressed but not crushed, persecuted not abandoned
Struck down but not destroyed
I'm blessed beyond the curse for Your promise will endure
That your joy's gonna be my strength

Though the sorrow may last through the night
Our joy comes with the morning

Life's Too Short

I once spent a pleasant evening in the company of friends who thought my father had just passed away. I had gone to a church gathering to hear a friend speak, and people came up to me to ask how I was doing. Not in the usual way we ask people how they're doing, when we're being polite and really don't care to hear, but in a sincere way with their hands on my shoulder and their voices funeral soft. At first, I thought they were just sucking up to me, since a few weeks before a rumor had circulated that I had come into some money, which wasn't true. I hadn't refuted it, though, because if you're going to have a rumor floating around about you, that's a good one. It sure beats all the other rumors about me, most of which are true. Then a man sat down beside me, leaned over, and said, "I'm sorry about your father." I had talked with my dad that very afternoon but grew alarmed at the thought that something could have happened to him in the short hours since. It would be like my mother to forget to call me if something had happened. I was sitting there being mad at my mother, when the man said, "I read about it in yesterday's paper." What had happened was that a man with my father's name had died and the survivors included a son with my name. People from three different churches had prayed for me that morning. If you can ever arrange it to experience that much compassion without having to suffer the pain of a loved one passing, I encourage you to take full advantage of it. It was a splendid evening. Oh, there were a few drawbacks. One guy, whom I thought was a friend, didn't say a word to me. The more I think about that, the madder I get. If his father had died, I'd have said something to him. It takes something like this to show you who your real friends are. The other drawback is having to explain to people that your father is alive and well after they've gone out on an emotional limb to express their sorrow. You can see how they might be embarrassed. It's hard to talk with someone who has experienced a loss, so after you've been a comfort to someone it's natural to feel good about yourself. I hated to deny them that feeling, so after a while I stopped explaining and started thanking them for their kindness. It seemed the nobler gesture. Naturally, I'll have to set the record straight someday, but not until folks have stopped dropping food off at the house. I called my dad and told him he was supposed to be dead. He thought it was pretty funny and said it explained why people at the grocery store had stared at him that day. My mom didn't laugh and thought we were sick for joking about it. I'd hate to be a mother. They exhaust themselves trying to civilize us, and we repay them by watching The Three Stooges and letting our pants ride halfway down our bottoms. Nevertheless, this whole episode has helped me appreciate compassion and those who show it. I've decided I want to be numbered among them. I've also decided to forgive the friend who made no effort to console me. After all, life's too short. Just ask my dad.

Front Porch Tales

In his book, "Front Porch Tales," by Philip Gulley, we discover the honesty, humor, depth, and wisdom of the front porch in this inspirational masterpiece of soulful small-town stories, which has garnered widespread acclaim for the Quaker writer. Reminiscent of the stories of Jan Karon and Garrison Keillor, this collection of real-life tales grew out of essays Gulley wrote for the newsletter of the Quaker church he pastored in Indiana. Graced with a gentle style and deft simplicity, these stories powerfully conjure the little truths of everyday life.

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the workers, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Receive

All congregations in MCC practice an open communion. You do not need to be a member of this church or any church to come to the table and receive communion.

During Communion you will be offered bread and cup with a brief blessing.

We use grape juice for the cup so that all may participate. Gluten-free wafers are available from the communion server on the far right. Simply say, "Gluten free."

Todas las congregaciones de ICM (Iglesias de las Comunidades Metropolitana) practican una comunión abierta. Creemos en el amor de Dios incondicional para todas las personas.

Si deseas tomar la comunión en español, por favor dirígete hacia al ministro de comunión localizado hacia la izquierda y pídele, "En español, por favor."

Communion Songs / Cantos de Comunión

I Could Sing of Your Love Forever

Over the mountains and the sea,
Your river runs with love for me,
and I will open up my heart
and let the Healer set me free.

I'm happy to be in the truth,
and I will daily lift my hands:
for I will always sing
of when Your love came down.

I could sing of Your love forever, I could sing of Your love forever,
I could sing of Your love forever, I could sing of Your love forever.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

He's my Savior, He's my Savior, He's my Savior, He's my Savior
He's my Savior, He's my Savior, He's my Savior, He's my Savior

God is worthy, God is worthy, God is worthy, God is worthy
God is worthy, God is worthy, God is worthy, God is worthy

I Stand in Awe

You are beautiful beyond description, too marvelous for words.
Too wonderful for comprehension, like nothing ever seen or heard.
Who can grasp your infinite wisdom? Who can fathom the depth of your love?
You are beautiful beyond description majesty enthroned above.

*And I stand, I stand in awe of you. I stand, I stand in awe of you.
Holy God to whom all praise is due, I stand in awe of you.*

We Sing

We sing as a body during the distribution of the elements. If you do not wish to sing, please be in an attitude of prayer for those who wish to meditate during this time. God, open us to your living presence through your life at this table. Receive the living sacrifice of our awakened life.

Prayer

If you are in need of prayer support, you can find prayer partners available during our time of communion or after worship in the right wing of the Sanctuary.

Embody

We want to encourage you to engage your spiritual life beyond worship on Sunday.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

The MISSION of Resurrection MCC is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christian action.

The VISION of Resurrection MCC is to ATTRACT people into a relationship with God through radical INCLUSION into God's family, transform them to Christ-like MATURITY, and MOBILIZE them for their life purpose.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value and resisting exclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We want to continue to be the conduits of a faith where everyone is included in the family of God, and where all parts of our being are welcomed at God's table.

Community

Offering a safe and open community for people to worship, learn and grow in their faith is our deep desire. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

Providing a message of liberation from the oppressive religious environment of our day or to those experiencing God for the first time is what guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives will be transformed.

Social Action

Working to talk less and do more, we are committed to resisting the structures that oppress people and standing with to those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems, being guided always by our commitment to Global Human Rights.

SEXUAL SALVATION

WEDNESDAYS

FEBRUARY 1, 8, 15

7 - 8:30 PM, Gathering Place

Most of Christianity has taught that our sexuality is counter to our spirituality – and not just for LGBTQ people, but for everyone! Yet despite what we have been taught, we know something very different in the truth of our lives: both our sexuality and our spirituality have the capacity to lead us into healing relationship with God, self and others in ways which are life-affirming and love-bearing. Reflecting upon our faith with this in mind, we will consider what a theology of “sexual salvation,” a sexuality-affirming faith, could look like. We will specifically explore: queer Christian sexual ethics; inclusivity, sexual diversity, and the faith community; and sex-positive Christian discipleship. Prior attendance at an “LGBTQ and Free” class or another form of Bible and Homosexuality discussion is strongly encouraged. A basic understanding of those issues will be assumed and not specifically addressed.
