Come, My People

Come, my people; come, my people; come, my people.
Enter into the glory of the Lord.
My people; come, my people, come, my people.
Enter into the glory of the Lord

Sing, my people; sing, my people; sing, my people.
Sing unto the glory of the Lord.
My people; sing, my people; sing, my people.
Sing unto the glory of the Lord.

Worship, my people; worship, my people; worship, my people.
'Til the glory of the Lord comes down.
My people; worship, my people; worship, my people.
'Til the glory of the Lord comes down.

Come, my people; come, my people; come, my people, come!

Engage!

This series explores the practical questions of belonging to a family of faith and ultimately finding our own path to being engaged. See if any of these questions ring true for you.

When and how do you experience being a part of a community of faith? What does it mean to belong somewhere, anywhere, and of all places at a church? Do I experience God's love personally, communally, in my family? Does family even apply to me? What is expected of me? What can I hope to receive? Do I get to share my talents, my gifts, my story, my wisdom?

Breathe

This is the air I breathe.
This is the air I breathe.
Your holy presence living in me.
This is my daily bread.
This is my daily bread.
Your very word spoken to me.

*And I, I'm desperate for you.
And I, I'm lost without you.*

This is the air I breathe.
This is the air I breathe.
Your holy presence living in me.
This is my daily bread.
This is my daily bread.
Your very word spoken to me.

(Chorus)

I'm lost without you,
I'm lost without you.

Do For Us Whatever We Ask, Michael Coffee

Grant us every wish from Maseratis to mansions and manufactured beauty to immaculate perfection so all will be well and no grey spills through the cracks. Then watch us fall into predictable chemical dependency as we crawl through the numb dumbness of our lives made false and empty without scar or scuffle. Cry for us as we grieve the years gone by and every chance we had to sacrifice our golden selves was stopped by our boundless need to step on and over and win as you did, as you loved with abandon every one and every thing as you counted the cost of being vulnerably human and then spent it all in every daily cross of getting yourself out of the way and letting each Spirit-filled encounter with life's dirt and dander urge and move you to crazy ways of embracing the pained with the same holy hug that held you tight even through death. Good Lord, whatever you do, don't give us what we want, give us what we need. Give us your last place loser crown your humility of embodied love, your humble, open, crucified arms

One: In these human words we hear God's voice.

All: Amen

What Does the Lord Require of You?

by Mark A. Miller

Mark 10:35-40

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And Jesus said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

One: This is the Word of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Communion

As we gather, break bread, and tell stories of hope through prayer, song and ritual in the practice we call "communion," we bear witness that "Life is stronger than death. People can change with God's help. And God is worthy of our thanks and praise." All are welcome at the table; you do not need to be a member of this or any church to gather as God's children at the table of Life.

A brief blessing is offered with bread and unfermented juice, available to all. Gluten-free bread is offered at the far right; Spanish blessing offered at the far left.

Please honor this time of sacred community with singing, quiet meditation or prayer that we might each receive the spiritual nourishment we seek ...

Comunión

Al reunirnos, partir el pan, y contar historias de esperanza a través de la oración, el canto y el ritual en la práctica que llamamos "comunión", damos testimonio de que "la vida es más fuerte que la muerte. Las personas pueden cambiar con la ayuda de Dios. Y Dios es digno de nuestro agradecimiento y alabanza. "Todos están invitados a la mesa: no es necesario ser miembro de esta iglesia o cualquier reunir como hijos de Dios en la mesa de la Vida.

Una breve bendición se ofrece con el pan y el jugo, al alcance de todos. Pan sin gluten se ofrece en el extremo derecho; bendición españoles ofrecen en el extremo izquierdo.

Por favor respetar este tiempo de comunidad sagrada con canto, la meditación o la oración silenciosa para que podamos recibir cada uno el alimento espiritual que buscamos.

Holy, Holy, Holy!

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee.

Welcome!

If you are attending Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located in our Welcome Area, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you and your infants & children aged one month through three years! The nursery is located to the right of the Sanctuary entrance and is open during both the 9 & 11 am services.

Children and youth aged 4 - 17 years are invited to join our Youth Ministries Program during the 11 am service in the Activities Building (located across the breezeway from our main parking lot). Sign-in begins at 10:45 am. All children must be registered and signed-in to attend. Parents are welcome to join the children for Communion at Noon in the Activities Building. Snack & sign-outs begin at 12:15 pm.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

Our MISSION is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christ-like action.

Our VISION is to boldly experience, engage, and embody our faith to transform ourselves and the world into the full expression of Christ's inclusive love.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value. Inclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We believe that all people, as they are and where they are, should be welcomed at God's table.

Community

Our deep desire is to offer a safe and open community for people to worship, learn, share, and grow in their faith. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

A message of liberation guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives are transformed.

Justice

We are committed to uplifting all people and standing with those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems. We are guided by our commitment to global human rights.

WEDNESDAYS
OCTOBER 21, 28
7 - 8:30 pm • Workroom

In Spiritual Journaling you will learn to recognize the progression from who you have been to who you are meant to become. By taking time to go back and understand the critical elements of your life—the events, relationships, patterns, and experiences that shape you—you will gradually find yourself viewing the future through the lens of conformity to the way of Jesus. You may choose to explore this new skill with a group of friends (recommended!) or on your own.

Join in a lively discussion with Rev. Dr. Nancy Wilson, the elected Moderator (global leader) of Metropolitan Community Churches. She is only the second person, and the first woman, to serve in that role since MCC's founding. Rev. Nancy is the spiritual leader and spokesperson for MCC, while also leading the Governing Board and Senior Leadership Team as we resource and support our local churches around the world. She currently serves on the board of the Global Justice Institute, as well as on the U.S. President's Advisory Council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships.

DRUMMING AS A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE

WEDNESDAY
NOVEMBER 4, 11, 18
7 - 8:30 pm • Gathering Place

A drumming circle is a place for practitioners to get together for learning, healing, and the direct revelation of spiritual guidance. A drumming circle provides an opportunity to connect with your own spirit at a deeper level, and also to connect with a group of other like-minded people.

IMANI VIDA DRUM CIRCLE

SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 7
2 - 4 pm • Activities Building

“Imani” means Faith in Swahili, and “Vida” means Life in Spanish. Join us as we explore life and faith through drumming! If you like to drum or have an interest in drumming, join us as we make music through all sorts of percussion instruments: hand drums, shakers, rain sticks and even the sound of foot stomping music. Drummers of all skill levels are welcome. No prior drumming experience is required to participate in our circle. We only ask that you bring your desire to be a part of our community drum circle. We meet every first Saturday of the month in the Activities Building, as well as other locations for other special drumming occasions.

JOURNEYING YOUR SPIRITUAL PATH: THE LABYRINTH

SUNDAY
NOVEMBER 1, 8, 15, 22
1 - 2:30 pm • Activities Building

We are all on the path... exactly where we need to be. The labyrinth is a model of that path. At its most basic level the labyrinth is a metaphor for the journey to the center of your deepest self and back out into the world with a broadened understanding of who you are. A labyrinth is an ancient symbol that relates to wholeness. It combines the imagery of the circle and the spiral into a meandering but purposeful path.

Protect Houston's Equal Rights Ordinance

WHAT DOES THIS ORDINANCE DO?

The Houston Equal Rights Ordinance ensures that all hardworking Houstonians have the opportunity to earn a living, take care of their families, have housing, and be served by businesses and government, without fear of discrimination.

By providing a municipal mechanism to report and resolve cases of discrimination the Equal Rights Ordinance gives all Houstonians a local solution to local problems without the need to hire a lawyer or file an expensive lawsuit.
