+ Opening Song / Apertura de Canción

All Are Welcome

Let us build a house where love can dwell
And all can safely live,
A place where saints and children tell
How hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
And words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek
To dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness
And as symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found
In water, wine and wheat:
A banquet hall on holy ground,
Where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus,
Is revealed in time and space;
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where all are named,
Their songs and visions heard
And loved and treasured, taught and claimed
As words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter,
Prayers of faith and songs of grace,
Let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

Breaking Free

We will examine the generous life -- what it is and why it can be hard to experience. We want to understand why generosity brings joy and what forces work against it. Many of us want to experience the significance of blessing others but feel trapped by past decisions and misled by the messages of "having more and having better" from society.

Jesus does offer a way to defy gravity -- love God, love others, and expect Resurrection!

Gathering Song

Did You Feel The Mountains Tremble

Do you feel the hatred tremble
When all who love join in one song
And all the streams flow as one river
To wash away our brokenness

And here we see that, God, You're moving
A time of jubilee is coming
When young and old return to Jesus
Fling wide, you heavenly gates
Prepare the way of the risen Lord

Open up the doors and let the music play
Let the streets resound with singing
Songs that bring Your hope and
Songs that bring Your joy
Dancers who dance upon injustice

Open up the doors and let the music play
Let the streets resound with singing
Songs that bring Your hope and
Songs that bring Your joy

Dancers who dance upon injustice
Dancers who dance upon injustice
Dancers who dance upon injustice

Defying Gravity

by Tom Berlin

We simply will never grow in the love of Christ unless we allow God to form a generous spirit within us. Financial generosity is a helpful starting point, because it exposes in many of us a resistance to giving. There are many spiritual disciplines that the Holy Spirit uses to form and sanctify our character. Worship, prayer, study, and service would all be good examples. But I've found that giving weekly, starting with a tithe, is one of the most significant practices in my life.

Remember Me

One: On the night You were betrayed, You took the bread, After giving thanks, You broke it and said, This is My body broken for you, And as you eat it remember Me.
All: This is My body broken for you, And as you eat it remember Me.

One: On the night You were betrayed, You held the cup, After giving thanks You lifted it up, This is My blood poured out for you, And as you drink it remember Me
All: This is My blood poured out for you, And as you drink it remember Me

One: So we thank You for the wine, And for the bread, For we see the life You gave, And the blood You shed, And we remember Your wondrous love, You gave Your body You shed Your blood
All: And we remember Your wondrous love, You gave Your body You shed Your blood

Communion

As we gather, break bread, and tell stories of hope through prayer, song and ritual in the practice we call "communion," we bear witness that "Life is stronger than death. People can change with God's help. And God is worthy of our thanks and praise." All are welcome at the table: you do not need to be a member of this or any church to gather as God's children at the table of Life.

A brief blessing is offered with bread and unfermented juice, available to all. Gluten-free bread is offered at the far right; Spanish blessing offered at the far left.

Please honor this time of sacred community with singing, quiet meditation or prayer that we might each receive the spiritual nourishment we seek ...

Comunión

Al reunirnos, partir el pan, y contar historias de esperanza a través de la oración, el canto y el ritual en la práctica que llamamos "comunión", damos testimonio de que "la vida es más fuerte que la muerte. Las personas pueden cambiar con la ayuda de Dios. Y Dios es digno de nuestro agradecimiento y alabanza. "Todos están invitados a la mesa: no es necesario ser miembro de esta iglesia o cualquier reunir como hijos de Dios en la mesa de la Vida.

Una breve bendición se ofrece con el pan y el jugo, al alcance de todos. Pan sin gluten se ofrece en el extremo derecho; bendición españoles ofrecen en el extremo izquierdo.

Por favor respetar este tiempo de comunidad sagrada con canto, la meditación o la oración silenciosa para que podamos recibir cada uno el alimento espiritual que buscamos.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer a variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you and your infants & children aged one month through three years! The nursery is located to the right of the Sanctuary entrance and is open during both the 9 & 11 am services.

Children and youth aged 4 - 19 years are invited to join our Youth Ministries Program during the 11 am service in the Activities Building (located across the breezeway from our main parking lot). Sign-in begins at 10:45 am. All children must be registered and signed-in to attend. Parents are welcome to join the children for Communion at Noon in the Activities Building. Snack & sign-outs begin at 12:15 pm.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

Our MISSION is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christ-like action.

Our VISION is to boldly experience, engage, and embody our faith to transform ourselves and the world into the full expression of Christ's inclusive love.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed. We embrace four core values:

Core Values

Inclusion

Love is our greatest moral value. Inclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We believe that all people, as they are and where they are, should be welcomed at God's table.

Community

Our deep desire is to offer a safe and open community for people to worship, learn, share, and grow in their faith. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

Spiritual Transformation

A message of liberation guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives are transformed.

Justice

We are committed to uplifting all people and standing with those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems. We are guided by our commitment to global human rights.

DEFYING GRAVITY: Break Free From the Culture of More

Sunday, October 30

1 - 2:30 pm • Chapel

Our possessions can create unbearable weight and affect our ability to serve and thrive. How do we defy gravity and find freedom? In this 4-week study we will explore what is required to sustain a vibrant life, what we need versus what we want, and what we can do to avoid being pulled into the orbit of materialism.

FORGIVENESS: 21 Days to Forgive Everyone for Everything

Wednesdays
November 2, 9, 16
7 - 8:30 pm

Too many of us feel trapped in stagnant romantic, family, or workplace relationships. Weighed down by toxic thoughts and emotions, we might be quick to judge and slow to pardon, and self-righteous about our feelings as we dwell on memories of what we or others did (or failed to do). In this book study of 21 Days of Forgiveness by Iyanla Vanzant, we will be challenged to liberate ourselves from the wounds of the past and to embrace the new power of forgiveness.

THE EMPTY CHAIR: FACING THE HOLIDAYS

Saturday

NOVEMBER 5

10 - 2 pm • Activities Building

Vincent van Gogh's last words resonate with many grievors this holiday season: "La tristesse durea -- the sadness will never go away." No, it will not go away. But it will change. Grief can be overwhelming, and it is especially intense during the holidays -- those weeks that have always been spent in preparation and anticipation with a loved one who has been lost. While the world seems to be moving forward and celebrating life, grievors face a season of darkness and loss. This workshop guides you beyond the grief with illustrations and insights that emphasize God's ability to transform the holidays into a time of grace and healing.

Faith is not a white picket fence. There are areas where paint is missing, or a nail or two have come loose. Parts of the fence are in pristine condition and shine brightly from afar. In other areas, boards are missing completely, and faith seems distant and forgotten. We repair the broken parts. We do our best to maintain the boards that are in good working order. Taking you on a journey through love, loss and faith, author Andrew McDiarmid shares his past and how some things challenged his idea of faith.

Three years ago, Andrew joined the Covenant Church choir and began a journey through humor, reverence, laughter, and pain. Faith is not a straight line. It is not always easy to find your way. Choices are made. Consequences are weighed. Each of these decisions lead us forward in life, creating our journey and creating our individual pathways.
