Alabaré

Alabaré, alabaré
Alabaré A mi Señor.
Alabaré, (alabaré) alabaré (alabaré)
Alabaré A mi Señor.

All of the faithful were gathered 'round the table
In mind and spirit one in true accord.
Many were praying others were saying
With joyful hearts, "O come and praise the Lord"

Alabaré, alabaré
Alabaré A mi Señor.
Alabaré, (alabaré) alabaré (alabaré)
Alabaré A mi Señor.

All were united in joyful celebration
All through the night until the morning sun,
Dancing and singing, their off'ring bring-ing
To Christ who for us all salvation won.

Alabaré, alabaré
Alabaré A mi Señor.
Alabaré, (alabaré) alabaré (alabaré)
Alabaré A mi Señor.

We now inherit the joy of the disciples,
We sing and dance and offer constant praise.
All that we suffer, with joy we offer
To God, and God we'll follow all our days.

Alabaré, alabaré
Alabaré A mi Señor.
Alabaré, (alabaré) alabaré (alabaré)
Alabaré A mi Señor!

Rising Hope

These encounters with Christ after the Resurrection surprised, consoled, rebuked, and inspired disciples through seven powerful encounters—what Shane Stanford calls the Seven Next Words of Christ.

These experiences between Resurrection and Pentecost, are not just ancient sayings but living words of hope. Join us as we engage these words full of resurrection surprise and vitality that will reinvigorate your faith that 'Christ is Risen, Christ has risen indeed.

The Seven Next Words of Christ: Finding Hope in the Resurrection Sayings

by Shane Stanford

As they stood on the mountain for this particular gathering, the exchange felt more permanent and exceptionally broad in scope. The disciples had a new mission, as well as a new set of criteria to employ and by which to measure their effectiveness. Make disciples, teach, baptize, go! The disciples ministry was no longer bound by the regions of Galilee and Judea. The scope was changing, and the disciples were held personally responsible for it.

To read the Great Commission texts, one must paint the entire picture. The scene unfolds, not against the backdrop of an eager army, but rather in a group of fragile human beings who struggle to live out extraordinary teachings amidst very ordinary lives and fears. In every Commission text, the prior passage details a strong sense of doubt or insecurity among the disciples. The disciples portrayed in these texts are less concerned about the world they would transform, and more intent on how their own worlds might change.

One: In these human words, God's voice is heard.

All: Amen

Mark 16:15-18

And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the good news[to the whole creation. The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: by using my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

Communion

As we gather, break bread, and tell stories of hope through prayer, song and ritual in the practice we call "communion," we bear witness that "Life is stronger than death. People can change with God's help. And God is worthy of our thanks and praise." All are welcome at the table: you do not need to be a member of this or any church to gather as God's children at the table of Life.

A brief blessing is offered with bread and unfermented juice, available to all. Gluten-free bread is offered at the far right; Spanish blessing offered at the far left.

Please honor this time of sacred community with singing, quiet meditation or prayer that we might each receive the spiritual nourishment we seek ...

Comunión

Al reunirnos, partir el pan, y contar historias de esperanza a través de la oración, el canto y el ritual en la práctica que llamamos "comunión", damos testimonio de que "la vida es más fuerte que la muerte.

Las personas pueden cambiar con la ayuda de Dios. Y Dios es digno de nuestro agradecimiento y alabanza. "Todos están invitados a la mesa: no es necesario ser miembro de esta iglesia o cualquier reunir como hijos de Dios en la mesa de la Vida.

Una breve bendición se ofrece con el pan y el jugo, al alcance de todos. Pan sin gluten se ofrece en el extremo derecho; bendición españoles ofrecen en el extremo izquierdo.

Por favor respetar este tiempo de comunidad sagrada con canto, la meditación o la oración silenciosa para que podamos recibir cada uno el alimento espiritual que buscamos.

The Summons

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In Your company I'll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Welcome!

If you are attending Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located in our Welcome Area, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you and your infants & children aged one month through three years! The nursery is located to the right of the Sanctuary entrance and is open during both the 9 & 11 am services.

Children and youth aged 4 - 12 years are invited to join our Youth Ministries Program during the 11 am service in the Activities Building (located across the breezeway from our Sanctuary building). During the 11 am Worship service, children will be invited to the front of the Sanctuary for a brief blessing, and volunteers will then escort them to the Activities Building.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

Our MISSION is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christ-like action.

Our VISION is to boldly experience, engage, and embody our faith to transform ourselves and the world into the full expression of Christ's inclusive love.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed.

Core Values

INCLUSION

Love is our greatest moral value. Inclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We believe that all people, as they are and where they are, should be welcomed at God's table.

COMMUNITY

Our deep desire is to offer a safe and open community for people to worship, learn, share, and grow in their faith. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

SPIRITUAL TRANSFORMATION

A message of liberation guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives are transformed.

JUSTICE

We are committed to uplifting all people and standing with those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems. We are guided by our commitment to global human rights.

Special Congregational Meeting Update

Dear RMCC Member,

May 3, 2018

On Sunday, April 29, following the 11:00 a.m. worship service, we held a special congregational meeting to present to the congregation a motion empowering us to take legal action as needed in negotiations related to selling a portion of RMCC's property.

In discussions leading up to the congregational vote, we as your Board established criteria for such negotiations to move forward; e.g., to:

- pay off our mortgage, thus eliminating debt and reducing monthly expenses substantially;
- retain, improve, and/or create adequate space for current and future church ministries and programming, including adequate parking; and
- apportion remaining monies, if any, between our Alpha Endowment and a donation to our global denomination.

We appreciated our consultants' advice to refrain from specific information that could affect any negotiations adversely and that will most likely change during the negotiations. We affirmed that we have received a viable, competitively priced offer for a portion of property—an offer that required more due diligence from us before we could, if we choose, make a counter offer. We also noted that over the years, we have rejected two previous offers from other buyers because those offers were not market competitive. Further, we acknowledged the comprehensive April 2014 to September 2016 journey of the real-estate team to find another location for our church.

The motion put forward by consensus of your Board of Directors in consultation with our bylaws, and which passed by 89% of the voting membership present is as follows:

"The congregation empowers the Board of Directors of Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church to pursue the sale of a portion of RMCC property, including and not limited to signing binding legal documents and closing the sale, if the Board of Directors deems it is in the best interest of the congregation."

We are grateful for the members and congregants who were able to be present for an hour-long discussion and for the members who cast their votes: 88 in favor, 3 opposed, and 8 abstained. We are grateful for all the passionate conversation and concerns expressed before the vote was taken.

We heard cautious support of our exploration from those who voted. We heard concern that we be careful with our home, and desires that we will share information as soon as it becomes possible. We heard a desire not to be surprised nor to be horrified later by the outcome. We heard frustration at not having more specific details, and we heard great trust in moving ahead in supporting the board.

We are grateful for the congregation's significant decision, and we pledge to continue to keep our commitment to ensure the wellbeing of our family of faith.

This is not a short journey of discovery; we are still waiting for new information, and we will share it with you once it is available.

Faithfully,

Your Board of Directors
