+ Opening Song / Canción de apertura

You Make Me Brave

I stand before You now, the greatness of Your renown
I have heard of the majesty, and wonder of You
God of heaven, in humility I bow.

*As Your love, in wave after wave,
Crashes over me, crashes over me.
For You are for us. You are not against us.
Champion of heaven, You made a way for all to enter in.*

I have heard You calling my name.
I have heard the song of love that You sing.
Oh, so I will let You draw me out
Beyond the shore into Your grace, oh Your grace.

(Chorus 2x)

'Cause You make me brave. You make me brave.
You call me out beyond the shore into the waves.
You make me brave. You make me brave.
No fear can hinder the love that made a way.

(Repeat 1x)

You make me brave. You make me brave.
You call me out beyond the shore into the waves.
You make me brave, You make me brave
No fear can hinder now the promises You made.

(Repeat 1x)

Because of love, in wave after wave,
Crashing over me. Crashing over me.
For You are for us. You are not against us.
Champion of heaven, You made a way for all to enter in.

We Gather

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with The Friend -- the loving Christ who meets us, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

Got Love

Got love, for our sisters and brothers;
Got love, for our neighbors in trouble,
Got love, for the poor and the sick,
We can show them some love.

Got love, for every nation,
Got love, for all generations,
Got love, for all of creation,
Yes we've got love!

This, this is our time,
To share some love
With the whole world over!

We're, we're not afraid
Living this life,
Loving one another.

Love beyond our comfort,
Love beyond our pride,
Love beyond our weakness,
Love will be our guide!

Got love, for our sisters and brothers;
Got love, for our neighbors in trouble,
Got love, for the poor and the sick,
We can show them some love.

Got love, for every nation,
Got love, for all generations,
Got love, for all of creation,
Yes we've got love!

Got Love? (in this crowd)
Got Love? (standing proud)
Got Love? (sing out loud)
Yes, we've got love!

Got Love? (in this crowd)
Got Love? (standing proud)
Got Love? (sing out loud)
Yes, we've got love!

Got Love? (I will shout!)
Got Love? (There's no doubt)
Got Love? Oh Yes!
We've got Love!!!

Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood
by Trevor Noah

To this day, nobody can explain what happened. Even the police didn't understand. Because it wasn't like the gun didn't work. It fired, and then it didn't fire, and then it fired again for the final shot. Anyone who knows anything about firearms will tell you that a 9mm handgun cannot misfire in the way that gun did. But at the crime scene the police had drawn little chalk circles all over the driveway, all with spent shell casings from the shots Able fired, and then these four bullets, intact, from when he was standing over my mom—nobody knows why.

My mom's total hospital bill came to 50,000 rand. I paid it the day we left. For four days we'd been in the hospital, family members visiting, talking and hanging out, laughing and crying. As we packed up her things to leave, I was going on about how insane the whole week had been.

"You are lucky to be alive," I told her. "I still can't believe you didn't have any health insurance." "Oh but I do have insurance," she said. "You do?" "Yes. Jesus." "Jesus?" "Jesus" "Jesus is your health insurance?" "If God is with me, who can be against me?" "Okay, Mom." "Trevor, I prayed. I told you I prayed, I don't pray for nothing." "You know," I said, 'for once I cannot argue with you. The gun, the bullets—I can't explain any of it. So I'll give you that much.' Then I couldn't resist teasing her with one last little jab. "But where was your Jesus to pay your hospital bill, hmm? I know for a fact that He didn't pay that." She smiled and said, "You're right. He didn't. But He blessed me with the son who did."

Dr. Renee Adams

Luke 6:46-49

Why do you call me "Rabbi, Rabbi", and do not do what I teach you? I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. The are like a person building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not act is like the person who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house.'

Love Makes A Way

We will add to our study of the Gospel of Luke the journey of a mother and son, Patricia and Trevor Noah, through breaking the rules, surviving, and thriving from the twilight of apartheid South Africa to the tumultuous days of freedom in the new democratic South Africa and on to the United States. This family journey lives out our shared gospel journey with the confidence that indeed love does make a way. Join us as we share the compelling, inspiring, and comically sublime story of one man's coming-of-age as we discover that Love Makes A Way.

Communion

As we gather, break bread, and tell stories of hope through prayer, song and ritual in the practice we call "communion," we bear witness that "Life is stronger than death. People can change with God's help. And God is worthy of our thanks and praise." All are welcome at the table: you do not need to be a member of this or any church to gather as God's children at the table of Life.

A brief blessing is offered with bread and unfermented juice, available to all. Gluten-free bread is offered at the far right; Spanish blessing offered at the far left.

Please honor this time of sacred community with singing, quiet meditation or prayer that we might each receive the spiritual nourishment we seek ...

Comunión

Al reunirnos, partir el pan, y contar historias de esperanza a través de la oración, el canto y el ritual en la práctica que llamamos "comunión", damos testimonio de que "la vida es más fuerte que la muerte. Las personas pueden cambiar con la ayuda de Dios. Y Dios es digno de nuestro agradecimiento y alabanza. "Todos están invitados a la mesa: no es necesario ser miembro de esta iglesia o cualquier reunir como hijos de Dios en la mesa de la Vida.

Una breve bendición se ofrece con el pan y el jugo, al alcance de todos. Pan sin gluten se ofrece en el extremo derecho; bendición españoles ofrecen en el extremo izquierdo.

Por favor respetar este tiempo de comunidad sagrada con canto, la meditación o la oración silenciosa para que podamos recibir cada uno el alimento espiritual que buscamos.

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less

Christ's oath and covenant and love

When all around my soul gives way,

Welcome!

If you are attending Resurrection Metropolitan Community Church for the first time, we are glad to have you here! We invite you to join us each week as we worship God and learn more about Christian living in an inclusive way. All are welcome.

Make sure to visit the Concierge Desk, located in our Welcome Area, to receive a gift from us. You will find friendly volunteer hosts waiting to greet you.

Worship Services

Resurrection MCC is proud to offer variety in our worship services. Our two Sunday services, at 9 & 11 am, are identical in form, however they contain different elements from diverse religious traditions each week.

A Special Welcome to First-Time Families!

Our nursery staff would love to meet you, your infants, and your children (1 month - 5 years). The nursery is located in the Activities Building and is open during both of our Worship services. Children, youth, and teens (5 - 18 years) are invited to participate in programming held in our Activities Building during our 11 am service. Sign-in begins at 10:45 am in the Activities Building.

Directions from the Sanctuary to the Activities Building: Go through the Welcome Area, out the two glass doors, turn left and walk down the sidewalk, across the breezeway, and enter the Activities Building. Go around the corner to your right and you'll find us. Feel free to ask an usher for directions.

About Us...

Resurrection MCC is a Christian church that follows God's call to justice for all people. We build on a rich history of social justice for, and on behalf of, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people. Since its founding in 1968, Metropolitan Community Churches have been at the vanguard of civil and human rights movements as an international advocate for vulnerable people in places where religious orthodoxy, sexism, transphobia and homophobia can result in violence and death. MCC has been on the forefront in the struggle towards marriage equality in the US and other countries worldwide and continues to be a powerful voice in the LGBTQ equality movement. MCC's ministry reaches over 43,000 members in over 250 churches in 22 countries worldwide.

Metropolitan Community Churches are on a bold mission to transform hearts, lives, and history. We are a movement that faithfully proclaims God's inclusive love for all people and proudly bears witness to the holy integration of spirituality and sexuality. Because of our faith, we are called to: do justice, show kindness, and live humbly with God (Micah 6:8); explore life's questions with open hearts and minds; raise our voices in sacred defiance against exclusion, whether religious, political or systemic; reach out to those with no hope; equip new generations of remarkable, far-reaching spiritual activists.

Our MISSION is to demonstrate God's unconditional love to all people through Christ-like action.

Our VISION is to boldly experience, engage, and embody our faith to transform ourselves and the world into the full expression of Christ's inclusive love.

At Resurrection MCC, every member and friend is a minister of the church. We envision a Christian community that values diversity and is as diverse and all-encompassing as creation. Through salvation, service, study, and tithing, each member and friend will live and grow in faith and be spiritually fed.

Core Values

INCLUSION

Love is our greatest moral value. Inclusion is a primary focus of our ministry. We believe that all people, as they are and where they are, should be welcomed at God's table.

COMMUNITY

Our deep desire is to offer a safe and open community for people to worship, learn, share, and grow in their faith. We are committed to equipping ourselves and each other to do the work that God has called us to do in the world.

SPIRITUAL TRANSFORMATION

A message of liberation guides our ministry. We believe that when people are invited to experience God through the life and ministry of Christ, lives are transformed.

JUSTICE

We are committed to uplifting all people and standing with those who suffer under the weight of oppressive systems. We are guided by our commitment to global human rights.

Creating a Welcoming Space for Everyone

Resurrection MCC is committed to creating a positive environment for our congregation.

Inclusion and Community are two of the fundamental values of Resurrection MCC. Sexual harassment and other forms of violence strike at the heart of both. Harassment, violence, and bigotry create feelings of fear, uneasiness, humiliation, and discomfort. They are expressions of perceived power and superiority by the harasser over another person. Sometimes, even when our actions are not intentionally hurtful, what we say and do can hurt others or make them feel uncomfortable.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual violence. Sexual harassment and sexual violence is any unwanted attention of a sexual nature, including:

- Remarks about appearance or personal life
- Unwanted flirtations or advances
- Offensive written or visual depictions like graffiti or degrading pictures
- Touching someone without their permission (groping, grabbing, hugging, petting, biting)
- Unwanted sexual demands, pressure, propositions, or requests for sexual activities
- Graphic comments about an individual's body or dress
- Verbal abuse, including sexual insults and name calling
- Rewards for granting sexual favors or the withholding of rewards for refusing to grant sexual favors
- Sexual assault, rape, and sexual violence

Many Resurrection MCC attendees create and build social and sexual relationships with one another. We want to remind you that if you are considering engaging in sexual relationships, consent is essential. Please be sure that all involved have similar expectations and engage in safe sexual practices. Free HIV & STD testing is provided by Fort Bend County Health Services on the first Sunday of each month from 10 am - 2 pm in the Gathering Place. Female and male condoms are available in our restrooms.

Resurrection MCC is proud to host a beautiful and diverse LGBTQ and allied community where vibrant diversity in sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression is welcome. It is all our responsibility to ensure that each member of our LGBTQ and ally family feels welcome and affirmed.

Thank you for your help in ensuring that Resurrection MCC is an environment where all worshippers feel safe, comfortable, and celebrated as members of our extended family. If you experience sexual harassment or violence or feel threatened, please contact Sharri McGlaughing, member of our Board of Director, at Sharri@ResurrectionMCC.org, or you may leave a voicemail at 281-254-8025. Communications will be kept confidential.

This exhibition presents a selected survey of the artist's drawings from the early 1980s to her most recent work on paper. This two-part exhibition will be the first museum exhibition devoted to Horn's drawings in the United States. The first part of the show, on view February 15 – May 5, 2019, will feature Horn's encompassing drawings, some over ten feet tall. They belie their scale through the artist's intricate passages of jotted notes. Marking time and consciousness, the personal notations maintain the intimacy of a whisper, pushing and pulling the viewer into and out of the large work. The exhibition's title evokes the integral place of drawing within Horn's artistic practice. It is derived from the artist's understanding that drawing is akin to "a kind of breathing activity on a daily level." Admission is free. OWLS@ResurrectionMCC.org
